ROTKÄPPCHEN-MUMM

WINZERVEREINIGUNG
FREYBURG-UNSTRUT_g

Rotkäppchen Sektkellerei

The economy of the city has been dominated since 1856 by the production of sparkling wine.

The former production facilities, which include 120.000 liters capacity of one of the largest oak barrels in the world, are shown on guided tours and both the covered atrium of the old production facilities as well as the cabaret cellar represent the cultural centre of Freyburg.

Although Rotkäppchen employs only about 100 people in Freyburg, the name makes it a major tourist attraction.

Hospital St. Laurentius Freyburg (old people's home)

*Hospital
„St. Laurentius“ zu Freyburg*

- The history of the hospital begins in 1539, when the hospital "St. Laurentius" was first mentioned. The hospital housed people with infectious diseases.
- Since the 18th century, the poor people of Freyburg lived here.
- For the region of Saale and Unstrut, St. Laurentius is also important because it is said that he is the patron saint of the winegrowers.
- The Hospital consists of several parts: the main building, the Dorotheenhaus on the market square and the Acceptance outside of Freyburg.
- The owner of the company is Mrs. Bornschein. She still owns the ice cream parlor "Merle" and the Kindergarten too.
- In total, around 150 people work there.
