

E, the chameleon and the adventure with his friend S

Once upon a time, there was a boy called John who lived in Albufeira, near the beach. He had a friend, a chameleon, called E.

E was a birthday present from the boy's father when he was five years old. They were always together, but, one day, John went to the kindergarten and the chameleon stayed at home.

The chameleon was very sad because he was alone and had an idea - go sightseeing. He climbed trees, went to the park to see the boys playing, crossed the road, but he was afraid because there were a lot of cars. Then he walked a lot and arrived at the beach.

When John got home, he rushed to see his friend but he couldn't find him.

John called: "E, E, Where are you?", but he had no answer. Then John thought: "He's probably in the yard. Let me go out there and look for him". And he did it.

He searched in the yard very well, because his friend could change the colour and disguise himself. When he was in a tree, he became green like the tree, while on the soil, he was brown like the soil.

It was becoming late in the evening and John was becoming very sad, because he couldn't find his chameleon.

Meanwhile, the chameleon arrived at the beach and found a boat. He climbed into the boat and sat there.

The boat was surprised and asked:

- What's your name? What are you doing here?
- I'm the chameleon E and I left my house because I wanted to meet other new places.
- I'm the boat S, and I can help you, if you want. Do you want to come with me?
- Let's go!

At the sea, E saw fishes, octopus, sharks, a completely new world ...

- I am loving this, my friend S, what a great adventure!

On the following day, it was Sunday and John, as usual, went to the beach with his father and mother. There he saw a beautiful boat. He got into the boat and suddenly heard a big mess. He looked up and saw E.

What a thrill! He had found his friend! He was very, very happy!

From then on, the three became friends and it was normal to see them by the shore of Albufeira.
