Food can be chosen among at least two options

I expected to visit less places among the weather but we visited a lot of places and to much school. It was a good experience for me. The programme was full of activity. Thank you for your hospitality.

Yes

It exceeded expectations!

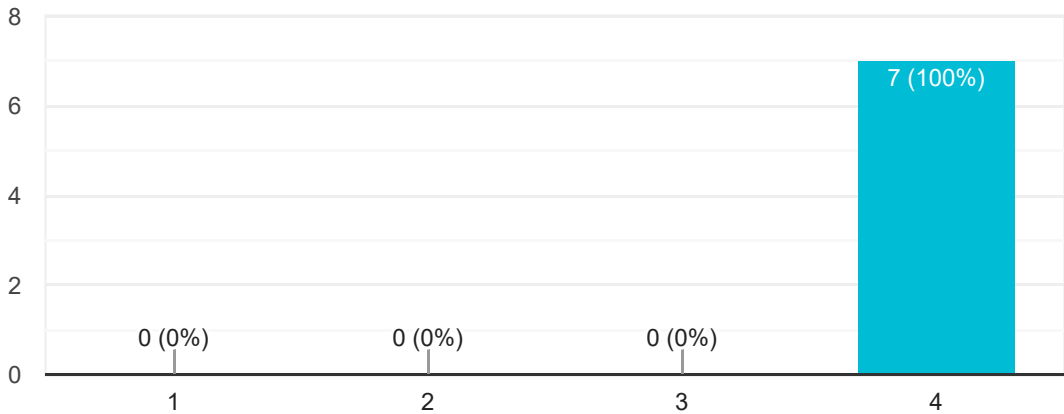

The entire program was exciting and practical.

All activities have had a major impact on my development as a teacher. We realized that technology can be an ally in the process of education.

The program was in line with my expectations.

5. For the development of the next project meeting(s), what could you suggest?

7 responses

We should do another project together

For the next project it will be (of course another project) a visit to primary school

I suggest that the international teachers should be invited lessons or workshops much more

Participants should know English
More time bonding

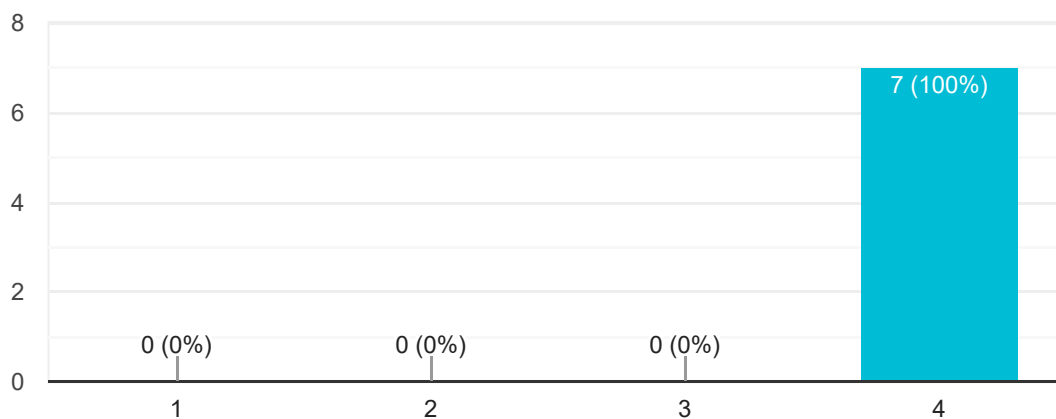

I suggest that other mobility should take place in the same manner.

Everything was great! i don't have suggestion.
