10.30 - 12.30	A guided tour in the Estonian National Museum in Tartu https://www.erm.ee/en The Estonian National Museum was founded in Tartu in 1909 on the initiative and with the support of the nation – with the task to protect and develop the history and culture of Estonia. As in many other European countries, primary importance was attached to preserving the old, fading peasant culture. Also considered essential was gathering and looking after artefacts contributing to better understanding of cultural development, archaeological findings, old coins, books, manuscripts and historical records.
12:30 – 13.30	Lunch at restaurant Pööripäev: https://www.visitestonia.com/en/pooripaev-restaurant-at-the-estonian-national-museum The museum restaurant offers everything from the modern Estonian cuisine and, in addition to the tastes of our time, focuses on Estonian raw materials, beauty, and high-quality service. Restaurant Pööripäev aims to preserve, value, and promote the modern Estonian food culture.
13.30 - 14.10	Visiting the Upside Down House in Tartu http://www.tagurpidimaja.ee/ticket-information Upside Down House is a dizzying adventure for everybody – grown-ups and children. We literally have turned the house upside down. Upstairs is downstairs and vice versa. All the things like sofas, kitchen cabinets and everything else, that you usually see on the floor, hang from the ceiling in the Upside Down House. Actually, they are still on the floor, but the floor is the ceiling and the ceiling is the floor and as a matter of fact, it is you, who is upside down. If you got confused, then come and see for yourself, that everything you have just read is true.
14.10	Free time in Tartu and/or Tasku Center (Shopping) http://tasku.ee/shops/ TASKU, the shopping center situated in the center of Tartu, is open for all who wish to spend pleasurable and useful quality time. We aim to provide you with chances to relax, enjoy good food, meet friends and enjoy shopping. On levels 1 and 2 you will find over 50 shops.
