A great way to find new motivational strategies.

There are no barriers between countries... we are all siblings living on a planet called Earth... it's time to break the barriers!!!! ❤️

An extraordinary learning experience for students, and for teachers an excellent collaboration opportunity.

The project helped everyone involved- both teachers and students- realize they have common values and consequently common identities, despite their different nationalities and backgrounds.

A rewarding experience

Great experience for students and teachers!

Thank for your participation!
