

Visit to Agios Neophytos Monastery

Founded by the ascetic monkey Neophytos in XII century, this monastery is one of the most important religious places in the island. Not only the church but also an interesting museum and very relevant byzantine painting are preserved in the monastery

Visit to Kato Paphos

Afterwards, the group visited Kato Paphos, included on the UNESCO World Heritage List for its ancient architecture, mosaics, and ancient religious importance, related to the goddess Aphrodite. Finally, we visited the castle, near the archeological site.
