

Made by: Ilias, Georgi and Todor

The more knots a carpet has, the more expensive it is

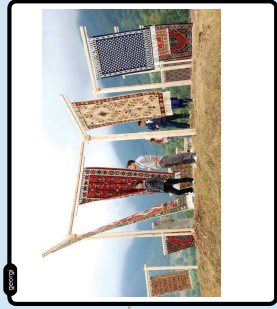

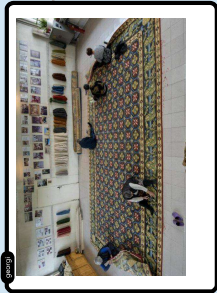

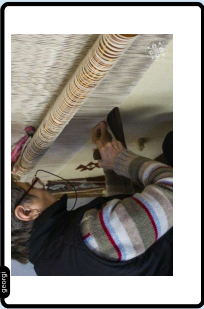

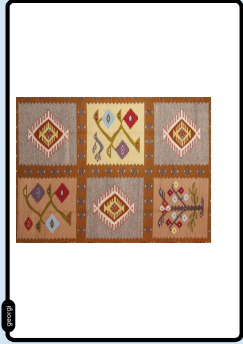

They are made of wool and cotton

The characteristic colors are red and black

The things that are drawn are strongly geometries

It is a part of the Bulgarian national heritage, traditions and artistic crafts.

Its name comes from the town of Chiprovtsi, where it began to be woven in the 17th century

They are made on a loom

The Queen several Chiprovtsi carpets in Buckingham palace