

SALT

200 years of good luck

Once upon a time, there was a little boy with big dreams. He wanted to be a blacksmith, a simple job for a very special boy. One day, a big catastrophe happened: there was an ambush, the salt was stolen.

This story took place 500 years ago, which means that salt was like gold. During the ambush they stole 200 kilos of salt, and unfortunately, they killed the little boy's mother. For a long time the boy cried, but, when he was 18 years old, he became a soldier to protect his village and his family. The 10 years that followed, he managed to find the 200 kilos of salt which he saved in a treasure box.

Today, you can see the treasure box exposed in the village, and people say that if you open the box, you will have 200 years of good luck.

Matilde Seabra 8 VC