Our Study on Paul Henry

- ▶ Firstly, we studied and discussed Henry's paintings. We found that he used similar hues and colours in each of his paintings.
- ▶ We learned about how landscapes painted in sections. The foreground, middle ground, background. We also learned about the importance of the horizon line.
- ▶ We discussed what emotions are evoked by these paintings. We see a sense of place, a sense of home in his paintings. They are very much representative of the landscapes around us in our area. We also feel a sense of calm and stillness when looking at Henry's paintings.
- ▶ Here are some photos of us at work.

We divided our page and started to layer our sky

Next layer to our painting was the mountains

Next we started to layer our middle ground details.

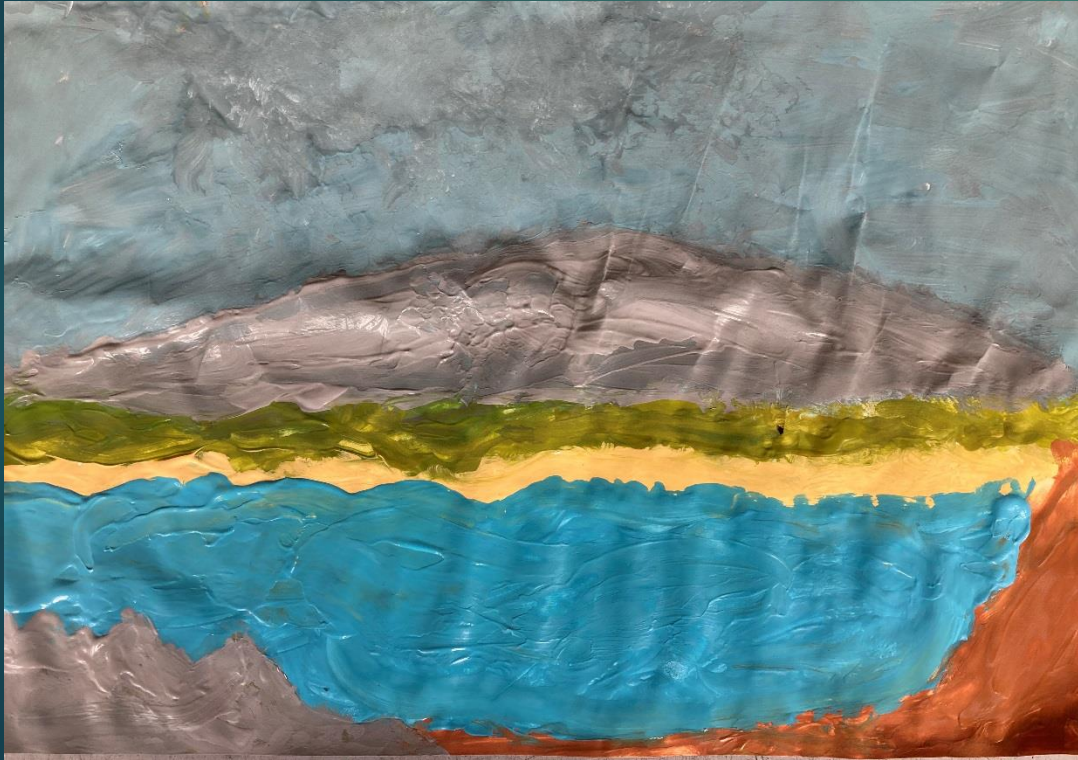

Finally we added the foreground.

Here are our finished paintings

We are so happy to be part of Erasmus VAN
