

“Ren Jämt” is a cleaning company. The name is a joke with the Swedish language. “Ren” means clean but are also a reindeer. “Jämt” means always.

“Ren-Jämt” is family company grounded 1999. The owner is Birgitta Andreasson and her two sons Peter and Patrik.

It starts as a small company but today it's rather big. “Ren Jämt” have over 100 companies as costumers and over 300 private costumers. And the company are still growing.

The policy are to use only environmental friendly products and the employees in the company always work two and two for the safety and friendship.

