The short is a video made by the employability team and project TV and was shot in the IES Puerto del Rosario by students of the school. It tells the story of a girl who just finished high school and she's thinking about a training course of higher level of tourist accommodation counted. Attends the Centre to learn about that course where they provide the necessary documentation to study this degree. When she comes home and tells his parents, they express disagreement with her decision because they prefer her to go to college. The girl decides to go forward with its decision of studying the training course and direct her professional future on this path because she liked it and it was the future she had chosen. At the end of the film we can see as the school has accepted her and she expressed his enthusiasm for having succeeded.
