

TASK 1

The story "The strange case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr Hyde" we can observe a mysterious story where it is sought to see if these two characters really exist or not, enter into mystery and suspense the work in search of making the author known The truth and curiosity of these two characters. Let's record that the epigraph are some annotations or quotes that are placed, this curious story is useful for many epigraph due to the form and concepts that they express to us that they can use for other stories, although these

TASK 2

Dr. Henry Jekyll ruminated on the esoteric of psychology and morals after devoting himself to analyzing that "mysterious duality of life": good and evil. A virtuous, morally correct person, he believes he has everything under control; sees in Mr. Hyde a way to break the limits of human behavior without any consequences. This company will mark its destiny to the point of reaching madness and personal ignorance. Insignificant novel, difficult classified in a specific subgenre; going into its pages, the reader can find the police, horror, psychological and fantastic

TASK 4

The strange case of Doctor Jekyll and Mr. Hyde explores, in addition to a personality disorder, a series of questions about our own nature. In the form of intrigue, it captivates us and fuses psychology with literature and philosophy; without a doubt, an essential work in all our bookstores.