

FROM SHAKESPEARE TO EMOJIS

TASK 1

1. I can express no kinder sign of love, than this kind kiss. (Henry VI)

A. Here is a kiss to show you how much I love you.

2. How much better is it to weep at joy than to joy at weeping. (Much Ado About Nothing)

D. It's better to cry from laughing than to laugh at someone else crying.

3. The silence often of pure innocence persuades when speaking fails. (Winter's Tale)

E. Sometimes it's better not to say anything.

4. I'am burn'd up with inflaming wrath. (King John)

C. I'am feeling extremely angry.

5. Present fears are less than horrible imaginings. (Macbeth)

B. Don't worry. There's nothing to be scared of. It's all in your imagination.

6. The very instant I saw you did my heart fly at your service. (The Tempest)

F. As soon as I saw you I fell in love with you.
