

Norwegian Part

We were not born to hate, isolate, discriminate.. no
our mission is to love and care
We`re not just black and white, we`re the colors of the world
No hesitation - communication. That's what we need in this nation

Our mission is to love and care

We`re not just black and white, we`re the colors of the world

Always be who you truly are,
then you'll be able to reach so far.

Open your eyes, don't you see you`ve got your own life, your own personality you don't need to listen, to what they say live your life in your own way.

Always be who you truly are,
then you'll be able to reach so far.
