Q1:What do you think about the humanitarian values?

I think they are the values such as respect,love,justice,tolerance ,freedom and self-sacrifice that make anyone a real human.

Q2:What do the the promoting humanitarian values gain us?

We can live together as long as we preserve those values.We can be powerful against the illegal forces.The fundemental humanitarian values can be the rule of living together in the world.

Q3:Why do the terror groups take aim at these common values?

As I said if those values hold us together,they think it will be easy to destroy the people attacking those common values.
