

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

Because humanity wants to see things that make up their own culture or treat them without care. I think people don't give importance to terror

Seda Nur Görür-Turkey The history of the nation is the most valuable item. Because without history there is no culture and no nation.

Yağmur B. Cultural values and holy place are very important to us. Targeting our values deeply affects us. Terror is trying to use it.

Seda G- Turkey Harming the history of a country not only harms the country but the history of the whole world as it belongs to the whole

Terror thinks "If I will shoot to common culture I will reserve them"

Sena- Societies with the right knowledge about their histories can better see and plan their future

Sinem S. Because historical monuments are the biggest part of our spirituality.

To make the nations lose their culture, their past, their self, and create a bigger chaos. Because the goal is not to find a reason to fight

Some mind-boggling people do harm to the culture of people without thinking that they harm them too

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

To spread chaos and ruin important and valuable places for the most amount of people.

It's heartbreaking for people to see such important sites be destroyed. Sacred places are weak spots for all religious cultures.

Betül B. - these places are reflecting human history These places are valuable for us and that's why they're trying to destroy these places.

Because if you destroy a nations history you will destroy them.

They use cultural spaces and sacred places to rid people and if they continue, I think that all humanity is against terrorism.

Because historical monuments valuable for us. So we must prevent it. Berfin

Günsenin Because,

Terrorist organizations want to destroy what belongs to humanity. They're targets of terror because they are rich. It's make me sad. AybikeD Hümeyra E. Because they are trying to destroy the place where people are more and also terror cultural heritage.

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?
Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

[illegible]

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

YusufK D. Because cultural heritages reflects our history.

Because they know that they won't be able to take society that is bound and they are trying to scare us by harming our common values

Busenur - Terrorism organizes people by telling people bad things. It's destroying our history.

Busenur - Terrorism organizes people by telling people bad things. It's destroying our history. This is bad.

people are trying to destroy societies by destroying common values so they destroy common values

Radicalized terror not only target human life but also pose a great threat to the centuries-old cultural heritage of the humanity. Read thre 1

people are trying to destroy societies by destroying common values so they destroy common values

Buse-Because they know that doing this is the biggest damage to a country. That's why they're targeting the greatest wealth.

Naime-Turkey Because they want to harm our culture and history and to destroy us

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

The aim of terror is destroying people's common memory and give them fear. If humanity lost their common memory, they'll be seperated. Pelin Beril ÖZKALAY - Because terrorism aims at human life and wants to destroy places where people believe and value to harm people.

People's ties with the past and try to break the national unity and solidarity. Ezgi A.

They want to group people. They want to destroy the unity in the world. He wants to be selfishly everywhere in the world Nisa G.

Terrorists who are not afraid of killing people are killing people in common by killing in history which is the common heritage of mankind people's ties with the past and try to break the national unity and solidarity. Ezgi A.

Yusuf Ö. - Historical structures are a common culture. Terror organizations try to destroy common past by destroying these structures.

BECAUSE THEY KNOW THAT STRUCTURES IS VERY IMPORTANT. AND IF THEY HURT THOSE STRUCTURES, THE FRIENDSHIP WILL TAKE DAMAGE MURAT K.

Because most nations attach importance to religious values. So the sanctuary will be crowded, so the effect is big.

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

Because they think they will harm the society the most when they destroy a place that means a lot to them.

Aybüke- Because historical sites attract more people. So, terrorist organizations want to get more attention and disturb history.

People live friendly without looking at the clothes they wear for their race. Radicalism is divisor

Merve / people live friendly without looking at the clothes they wear for their race. Radicalism is divisor

Because they want to destroy the historical proves that does not go with their religious opinion and reality. I think it is very, very sad.

Because humanity does not want to see or take care of the things that make up its own culture. That's why they damage historical documents

Our sacred places, historic works are the products of our culture. Terror groups want to destroy cultural diversity by attacking such places

Common cultural heritage is an important asset that people give to future generations. Hurting cultural values is also harming people.

I dont know why

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

Common cultural heritage is an important asset that people give to future generations. Hurting cultural values is also harming people. Nso Ayşenur A. - The past is important to us. And they are trying to destroy it because they know it.

Terrorism is ruining the common cultural heritage of mankind. Mosques, Churches are one of the targets of terrorism. Hüseyin K.

Mete-Destroying common cultural areas causes more sound. There's a chance to kill more people around here. They want more reaction

Because it's the background of a working society, and where people have built big things terrorists want to destroy. they take out the roots

Eda C. - these places are related to our culture and they try to harm our cultures and cultural diversity by attacking these places

ZEYNEP common heritage is important to everyone. destroying them is destroying humanity people are very attached to their history. historical monuments, cultural sites are sacred to people. they use this way to crush people Efe

Because the common cultural point of humanity and attacking in this way is like attacking the people of the world.

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

OKAN-because the purpose of the terrorist organizations is to harm the common values of the whole world, which is why they target the comm

OKAN- the aim of terrorist organizations is to harm the common values of the whole world and target the common values of humanity

Okan because terrorism aims to harm people's common values

Because "Monuments are the grappling-irons that bind one generation to another" as Joseph Joubert said.

Terrorists target that because they think that God wants to destroy cultural sites and sacred places.

Terror usually targets cultural sites and sacred places. They do it because they think they're superior and they want to erase historyyyyy.

terrorists target the historical places because they want to destroy the old monuments of other counties to satisfy their ego.

ihadists think that those places are "blasphemous" and only their "history" matters. that's ABSURD!

Tasos Metallidis Greece-what you leave behind is not what is engraved in stone monuments but what is woven into the lives of other

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

Heres the truth. Everything happens for money. Even the 9/11 was a plan of the America goverment so they can make war with the Syria for oil.

issue do all this think because there have not history and tradition.

The terrorists destroy cultural sites in order to make people lose their faith and values and force them to follow their footsteps.

Terrorists destroy the history so as to write their own and make themselves heroes. Get activated now! How far can this go?

Terrorists want to erase the human history and cause pain to everybody. Through this humans are under shock unable to do anything, but fight.

Because terrorists want to destroy our society and create terror in order to have political advantages our cultural buildings and our sacred places are very important to us. We are affected if they are damaged.

They do not have the education that a human being needs, so they destroy cultural sights that are valuable for a country.

Terrorists want to destroy cultural sites in order to destroy the history of a country and force them to lose every hint of their past

Why does the terror target cultural sites and sacred places?

Discuss and share your opinion! Show your concern about the issue!

Historical structures are a common culture so terrorists trying destroy the historical structures. Mert K it has to do with the value that those monuments and historical sites carry. It is the most harmful way to pass a message than fighting.

Because They want to atack the vunnerable sight of all people...

Because their purpose is to hurt people.

Because historical places are the identity of a nation, terrorist organizations aim to destroy their national identities by destroying place

Culturel sites are very important. So terror targets them.

Terrorism and radicalization is very bad things for humanity. Some body people thinks wrong. They say "We are angel of peace. "