Nice project! It is very important to share thought and opinions on such important matters internationally. However i wish we would have more discussions and debates, to further improve communication.
But all in all a huge success.

I have learned a lot, but I think the system, website and all the exercises were messy and not thought out thoroughly.

Chris Mahairidis

Comment

Very nice web-site really good job.

Theodore Moutafis

Comment

The project as a whole has been really enjoyable and interactive so far. I've mostly enjoyed the quizzes that we have been given to fill in and the M.I.T project where we had to communicate with other team members through the forums to complete it.

Öykü Karaman

Unfortunately radicalization destroys the common values of mankind. People have to ""stop" at this. If we don't stop, our wealth will disappear. If we look at the differences with the eye of wealth, we can reduce the radicalization most. I hope we can live in a world where you will be loved, respected and tolerant in the years to come...

Ahmet Said GENÇ

Comment

Project is very good. I learned a lot of things. For example: work with team spirit, to represent a good project as a country and project is I got a lot of things from my thinking and point of view.

I'm sure everyone says the same thing but this project is important to me. Because, thanks to this project, we can speak English and recognize different cultures and learn something about the countries in the project. Also I wanted to thank everyone involved in this project.

Mert KOÇAK

Comment

In this project I realized that labeling people was a bad thing. I realized that historic artifacts must be preserved. This project affected my ideas on these topics. Thank you everyone who contributed in the project

Tuğçe Torun

Comment

We are projecting with foreign countries through long and e Twinning and we can notice its contributions everywhere. With every activity we do, we feel that e Twinning has developed me and that my dreams are moving. Thanks to the different web tools we use in the events, we use the internet effectively and learn a lot of new things. Thanks to our project "In sight In mind" we made yearly, my thoughts about respect for cultural differences have developed and strengthened. I must say that e Twinning is an important part of education.
