

MODELO ESPAÑOLA

She was born in Toledo in 1989 and moved to Barcelona at the age of 22 to fulfill her dream of being a model for the big fashion brands starting from the bottom.

She started parading for not very prestigious brands but she was clear about her dream, to be a great model known worldwide. He earned his living from time to time doing parades for clothes not very well known in his town. Her dream was frustrated until the big day of October 12, 2012, Spain had won the European Championship and many families came to the bar where she worked, one of those families was the owner of a high-end clothing store. in the center of Barcelona, the owner of a recently created clothing brand saw her as she paraded with the tray and was stunned by her glamour, so she proposed to start working as a sales assistant in her store and if she accepted, the owner would take care of her She was one of the best models in Spain giving her parade classes, looking for and teaching her tricks. His dream had resurfaced when his hopes had been drowned. this woman began to make a name for herself among the models in Barcelona, many brands called her to parade but she never forgot who gave her this great opportunity, when she had great prestige worldwide, she returned to Barcelona to the store where she worked and helped the brand to gain worldwide prestige as well. His great idea was to make a big parade with this, called scalpers in his hometown, Toledo. It had an impressive boom and she and scalpers became very famous and became one of the best-selling brands in Spain.

2048212_europeana_fashion_claes_iversen_ss08_035.jpeg