

HEINRICH HEINE

Our work on Heinrich Heine

- During Erasmus+ meetings we explored his biography
- We prepared presentations and posters

Video Project

- We encouraged our teachers and students to recite one of the Heine's poem. It was a really hard work because not everyone could speak English 😊
- But... they did their best for YOU <3
- Now let's watch the film and we hope you will enjoy it!

SHORT BIO

Early life

- Heine was born in Düsseldorf (1797).
- He's full name is Christian Johann Heinrich Heine.
- He live in small town with a population about 16.000.

Universities

- Heine went to the University of Bonn.

- He wanted to be a writer but.... it was extremely difficult to be a professional writer in Germany at that time.

Heine, 1829

First page of first edition of Heine's
Buch der Lieder, 1827

Travel

- The first volume of travel writings was a great success
- Reisebilder II appeared in April 1827. It contains the second cycle of North Sea poems, a prose essay on the North Sea as well as a new work, Ideen Das Buch Le Grand.

Paris years

- In 1831 Heine left Germany for France, settling in Paris for his remaining 25 years

Thanks for watching

(Have A Nice Day!)