

Ivanka pri Dunaji

- ✓ Do you want to make a trip to Ivanka pri Dunaji? Or do you think that Ivanka pri Dunaji is a boring and not interesting village? Sit down, I'll show you the places you need to visit.

Basic informations:

Ivanka pri Dunaji is a village, some call it a small town, with a population of 6700 people. There also live some celebrities, like an actor Nela Pocisková, director Ďurovčík or a singer Kristína. Ivanka pri Dunaji is located in the southwestern part of Slovakia, outside the capital Bratislava, in the district of Senec.

✓ Places and their history:

We already know that in our history there was a disease called plague. This plague appeared in Ivanka in 1831. The chapel of St. Rosalie is connected with the Black Death. During the plague, people in Ivanka were very religious so they prayed to saint Rosalie in this chapel. Inside of it we can see her picture and her hands.

Memorial place where tragically died, a prominent scientist, General Milan Rastislav Stefanik is next to the airport. You can also go there on a bike path on a bicycle.

Grassalkovich CASTLE

It was built in the 3rd quarter of the 18th century for the Grassalkovich family. In 1855, Ľudovít Štúr secretly visited the castle. When a fire hit Ivanka in 1856, he renovated the castle.

Do you want something sweet? I heard that in Zlaté Zrnko they make the best coffee. I tasted latté and it is really good. And if you like cakes, you should try them in a café Štefánik. Inside it looks like an ancient style. There are a lot of planes, maps and things about M. R. Štefánik.

In the end, a little rest. Lake Štrkovka is a very popular place in our village where you can relax, swim, harden, play sports. There is also a buffet for fast food.
