

What does INDEPENDENCE mean to you?

In my opinion independence is when I have reliability on myself in everything and I am not independent on somebody (for example parents, friends, boyfriend)

Independence mean for me that I have no addictions on other things/people

In my opinion, on the personal level, we feel independent if we feel in control of our life.

For me it is something which is hard to get but easy to lose. Independence is not seen very often from my sight, but when it is I admire it. I see it as one of the strongest feature of who owns it. It requires patientce and braveness.

Abilities, freedom, self-determination, self-renspnsibility (and responsibility at all), maturity

Its a state of freedom where we arent conditional on someone

For me, independence means that I feel free to do and think what I want without being depending on other person.

To me, independence means possibility to do everything we want. That means that I'm not dependent on anyone. I can do what I want and when I want. But until my 18th birthday, I'm dependent on my parents, because they are responsible for me.

Choosing decisions on my own

What does INDEPENDENCE mean to you?

I think, that it can be good to be Independent of parents and things like this.
