independence is freedom or liberation

In my opinion independence is something like we are here of our own and we aren't depended on somebody else (parents, grandparents,...)

Independence in general means not relying on anything and anyone. That is why I think nobody is really independent. We can be independent from some things like our parents, employer, etc. however we will always have to depend on some things/people.

I'm able to take care of myself. I don't have to depend on anyone else. I can make my own decision no matter what are the others thinking.

Independence means for me that someone or something is free from the influence or control of another. As example - person who lives on their own and support themselves.

To me independence means to make my own decisions, freely. To help myself with anything on my own, and to rule my life by myself without anyone telling me what I am supposed to do and what I am not.

What does INDEPENDENCE mean to you?

Independence to me means to be free and not controlled by anyone in everything I do. It means that I can live my life of my own choice and I don't need to rely on anyone else.

freedom, originality, clear mind, free will
