

HAPPY EASTER

Brekkuskóli

My Easter traditions

Every year everybody in my family gets an Easter egg.

We can choose what kind of Easter eggs we get but I always get salted caramel.

My parents hide the eggs before we get up in the morning. After we find our eggs we hide our parents egg and when everybody has their eggs we play a board game and eat the eggs.

That night we get a fancy Easter dinner and watch an Easter movie.

That is my Easter traditions 😊

My easter vacation

- My Easter could be different than yours. I don't seek for multiple mini-eggs, I actually buy an egg from a store and it can be in different sizes.
- My parents hide the egg somewhere in the house. That is the Easter here on Iceland.
- My vacation can be random every year. One Easter I went to my grandparents and then next one I went to meet my uncle and aunt. Then the third one I'm home.
- That's how my Easter can be.

My Easter tradition

- Every year we celebrate Easter.
- Easter usually comes around in March or April and when it does we have a so called “Easter egg hunt” but with chocolate eggs.
- Then we go around and find them and when we do we either go play with playing cards or watch an Easter movie.
- In the end of the day there is probably a lot left over and then we finish them in the next few days.

My Easter traditions

- When Easter comes around my family and I get some Easter eggs of our one choice and hide them ether at home or in the forest.
- We usually do it whit our four cousins that we have been with all our life.
- After we find the eggs we go and eat them.
- Then at the dinner time we will make some food and eat all together.
- This is my Easter tradition.
