You should go to Heidenheim because already the romans settled there. Today a lot of people of whole Europe live there too. So if you come to Heidenheim and settle down, you will feel very comfortable. In Heidenheim are lot of cultures from all over the world. Because of that the international street festival takes place in Heidenheim every year. There you can taste food and watch dance performances on a stage from all over the world.

What makes Heidenheim so special that every European has to know about?

Schloss Hellenstein:

The castle is one of our most popular attraction. Especially in the summer you can go to an opera festival or just see the beautiful sunset. Also there is a museum where you can see carriages, chaises, carts and the oldest taxi in Germany.

Opernfestspiele (Opera Festival):

Since 1988, the music event officially bears the name Opera Festival Heidenheim. In addition to the opera performance's, gala evenings, open-air concerts and other musical events are held in the city during the festival season.
