DAVID ALEXANDRU (2005-present)

David Alexandru is a very young Romanian artist, being only 13 years old. He was born in Romania in 2005, in a region where many artist came from- Iași.

This young painter proves that talent and work together can make you a professional. David won different painting competitions. His works bring much colour, joy, light of life in the hearts of his admirers across the country. He started to become known in other countries as: India, Africa, USA, as he has participated in many international competitions. David paints in acrylic, oil and watercolour.

His works impressed many people-art lovers-who organized art galleries in Romania and other countries in the world to make more talented children find out about David and follow his example. David's artistic career has materialized with an impressive record for a 12-year-old:- dozens of diplomas at national and international competitions; personal art galerries at the Palace of Parlament-Bucharest, at the European Parlament-Brussels, at the Romanian Cultural Institute in Vienna;- invited to Kerala, an Indian region, by a media producer, for whom he produced illustrations and drawings inspired by everything he saw in India;- charity events where he wanted to help other children from Romania and Kenya;- albums with his works, illustrator for magazines and children's storybooks -Revista "Kingdom of Tales" stories "Look who's talking," "The more and more" of Publishing Arthur, "Freesia eyes water, press articles - magazine "Eminesciana"; (his works are already in private collections in Romania, USA, Germany, Canada, Switzerland, Malaysia, India, Austria and Iran);