

ALEXANDRE'S THOUGHTS

he considers discrimination to be a big problem in today's society he says that some Portuguese people take part in protests and manifestations these movements make him feel hopeful about discrimination's ending he believes discrimination shouldn't exist and we should be respectful and accept each other's differences he states that we shouldn't judge anyone since we can't possibly know what they've been through