

Reading in English for Amusement and Dialogue in Europe

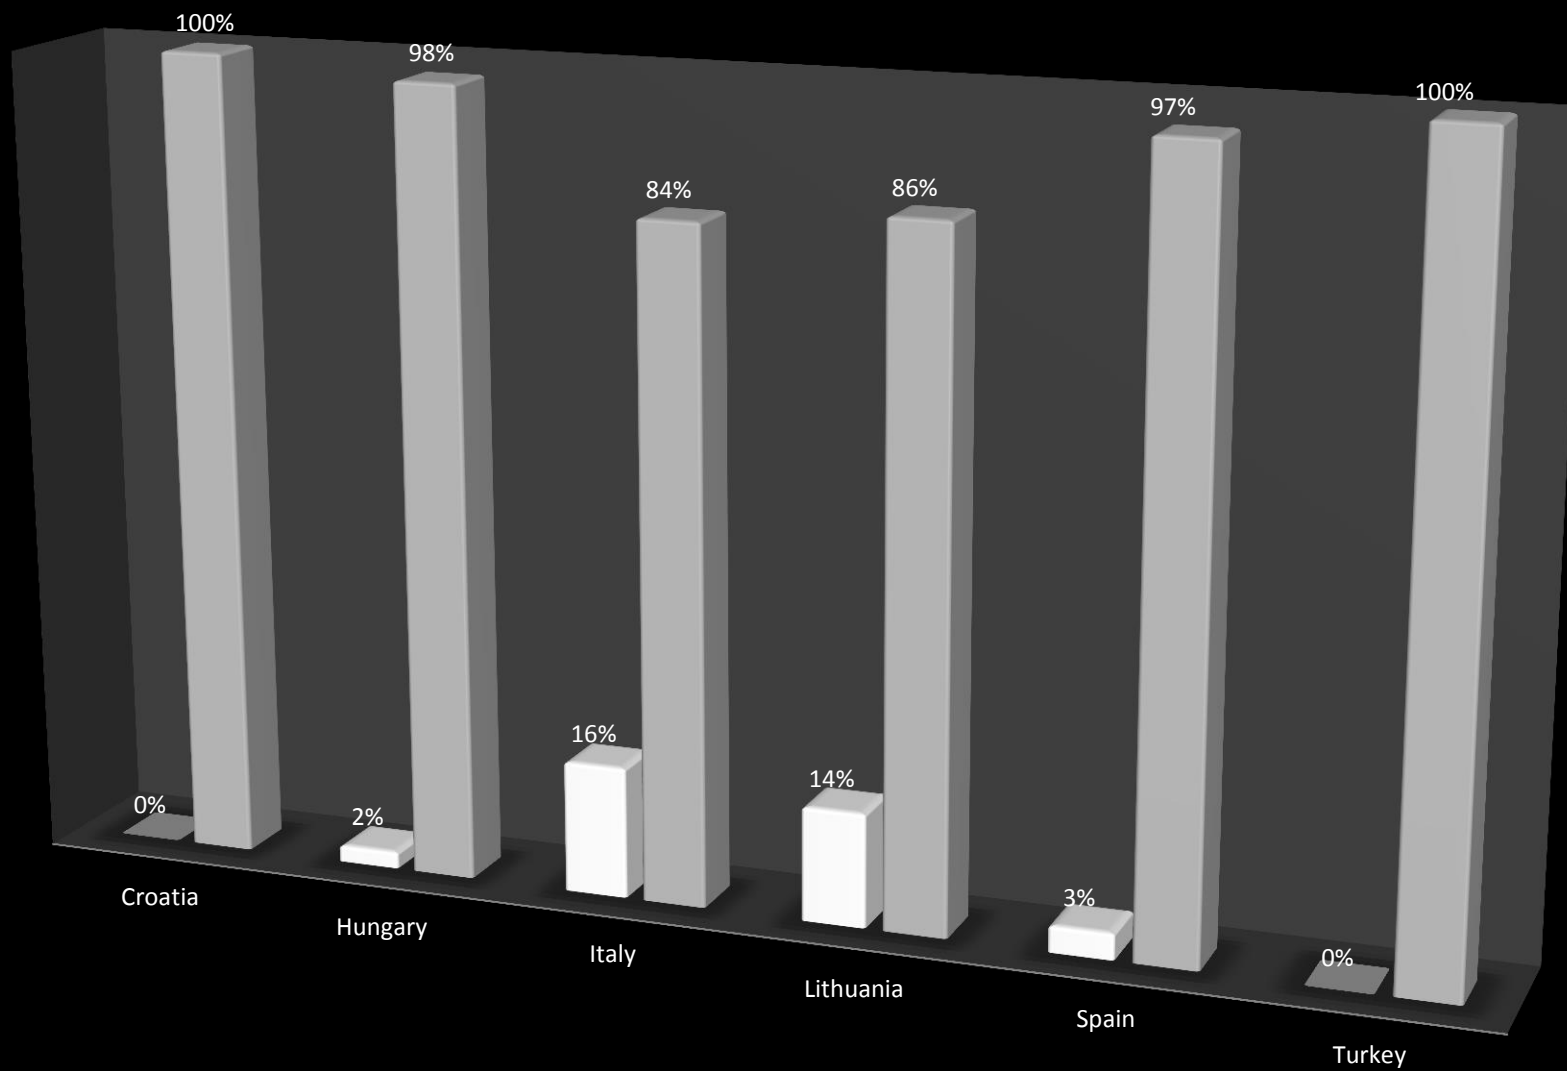

Erasmus+

As it turns out, the majority of our respondents claim that they like reading in general.

Do you like reading?

■ no ■ yes

As far as the format is concerned, the printed book is by far the most popular format, but tablets are also getting more and more popular among students.

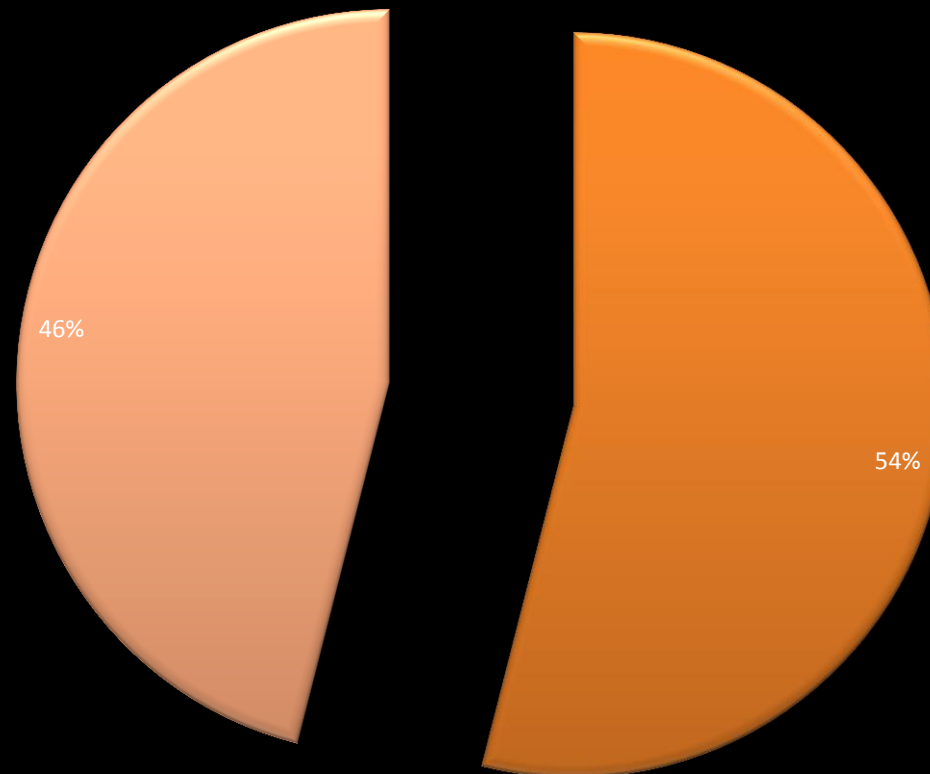

What reading format do you prefer?

■ Reading from computer ■ Reading from mobile phone ■ Reading from printed book ■ Reading from tablet

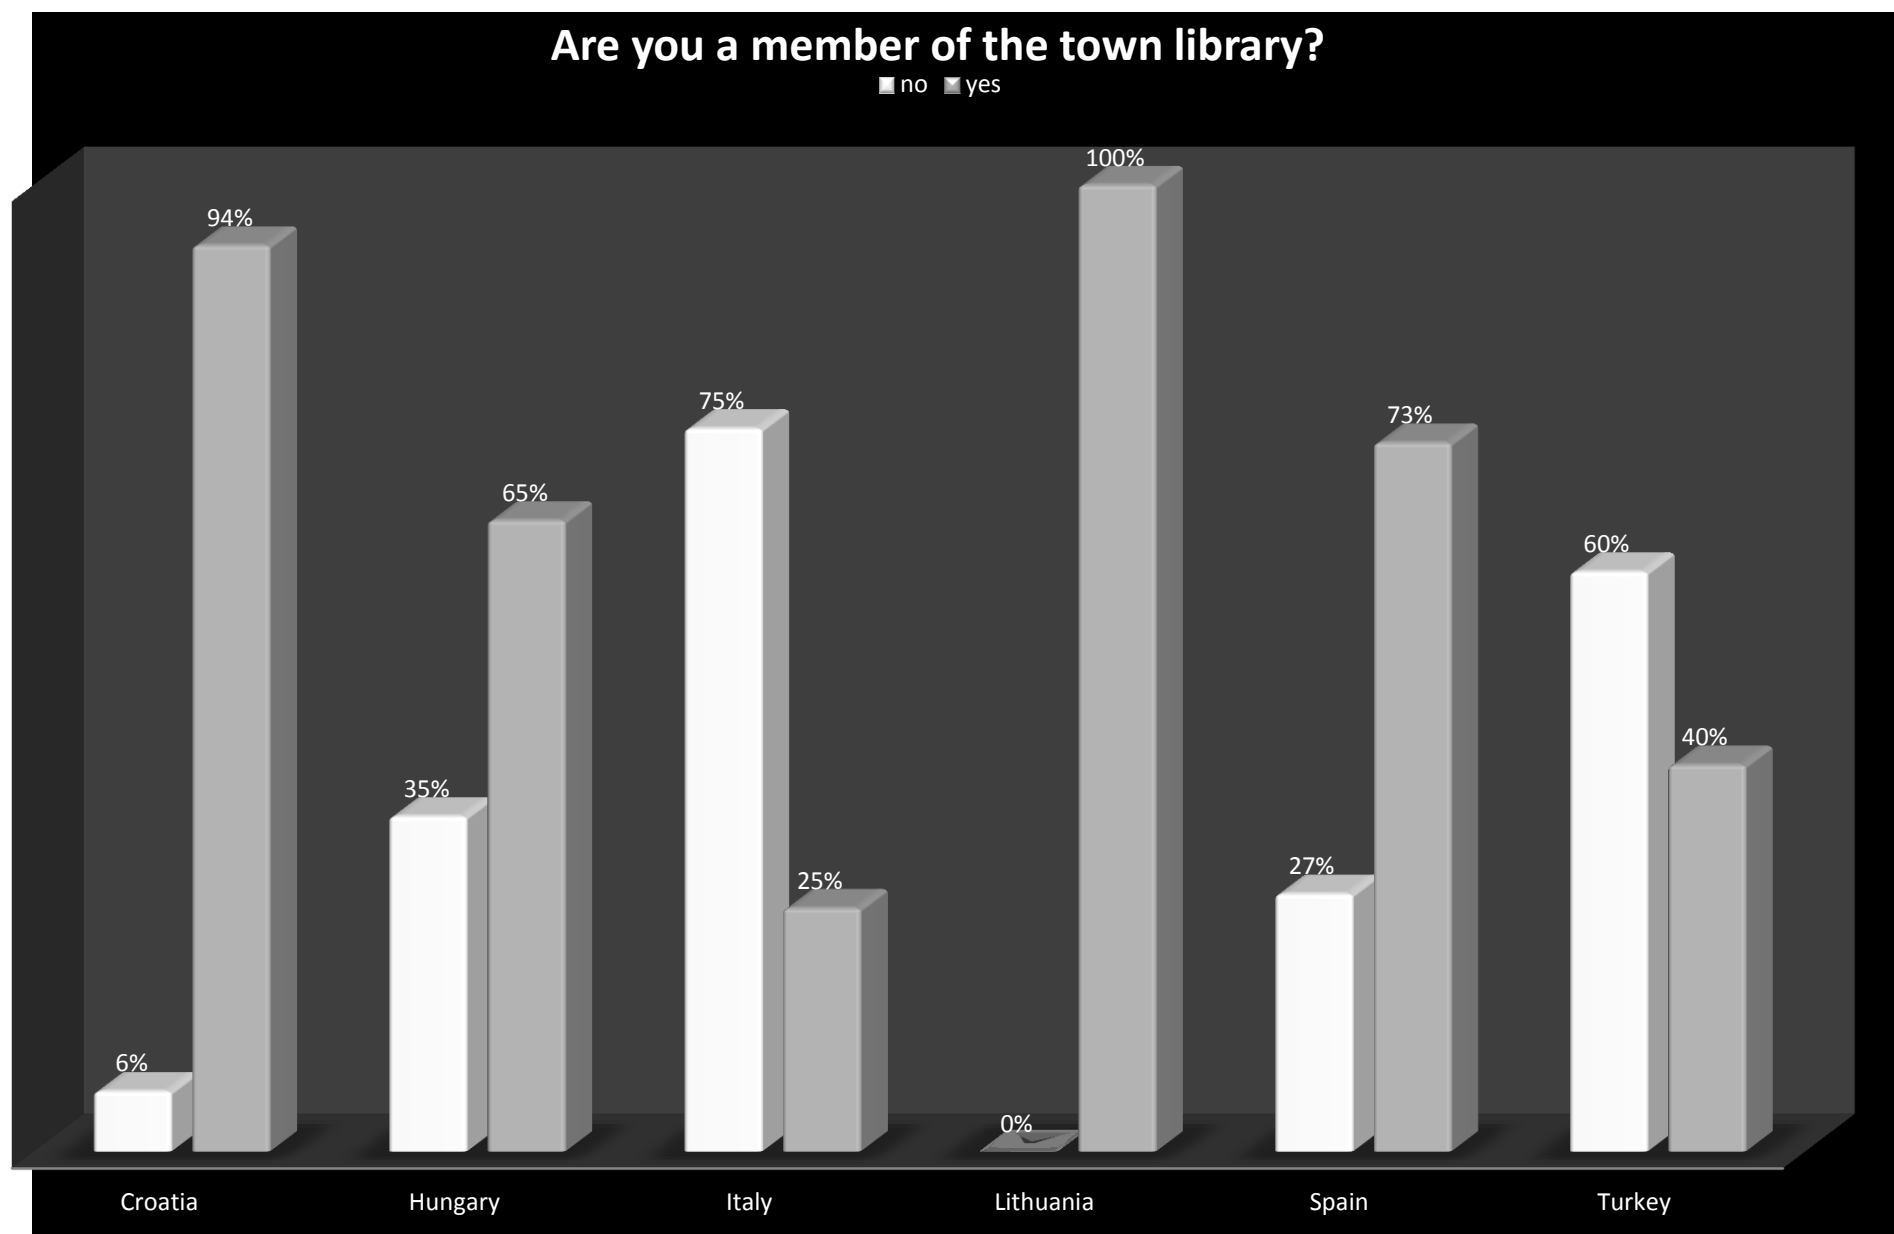

Are you a member of the town library?

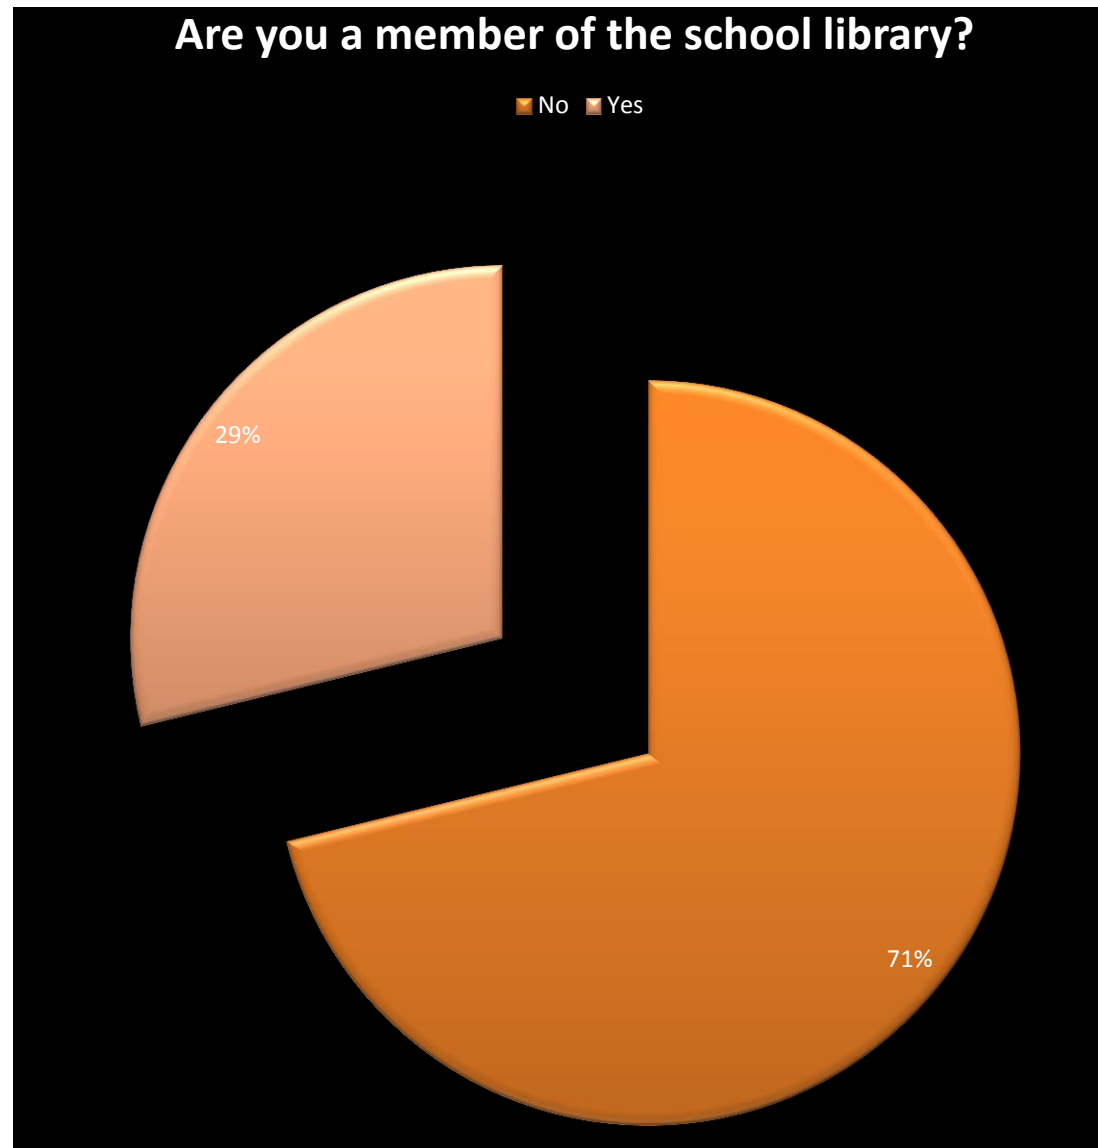

■ No ■ Yes

There is a significant difference between the participating countries regarding the membership of the town library. As one of our primary goals is to enhance reading and establish a good working relationship with our local institutions, the partners with a low library membership rate (mainly Hungary, Italy and Turkey) will have to elaborate a programme to improve these findings.

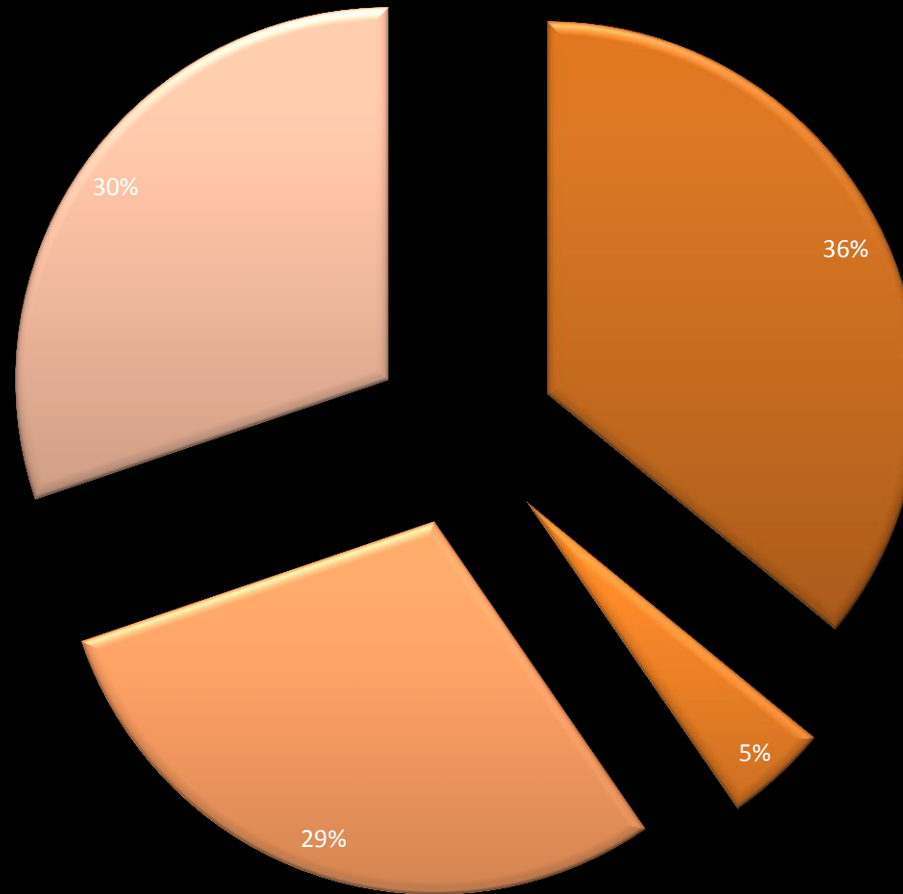

On project level generally there is a very low ratio of school library membership, which is a figure that we have to improve by involving our school libraries in project activities so that we can popularise the perks of being member of the school library.

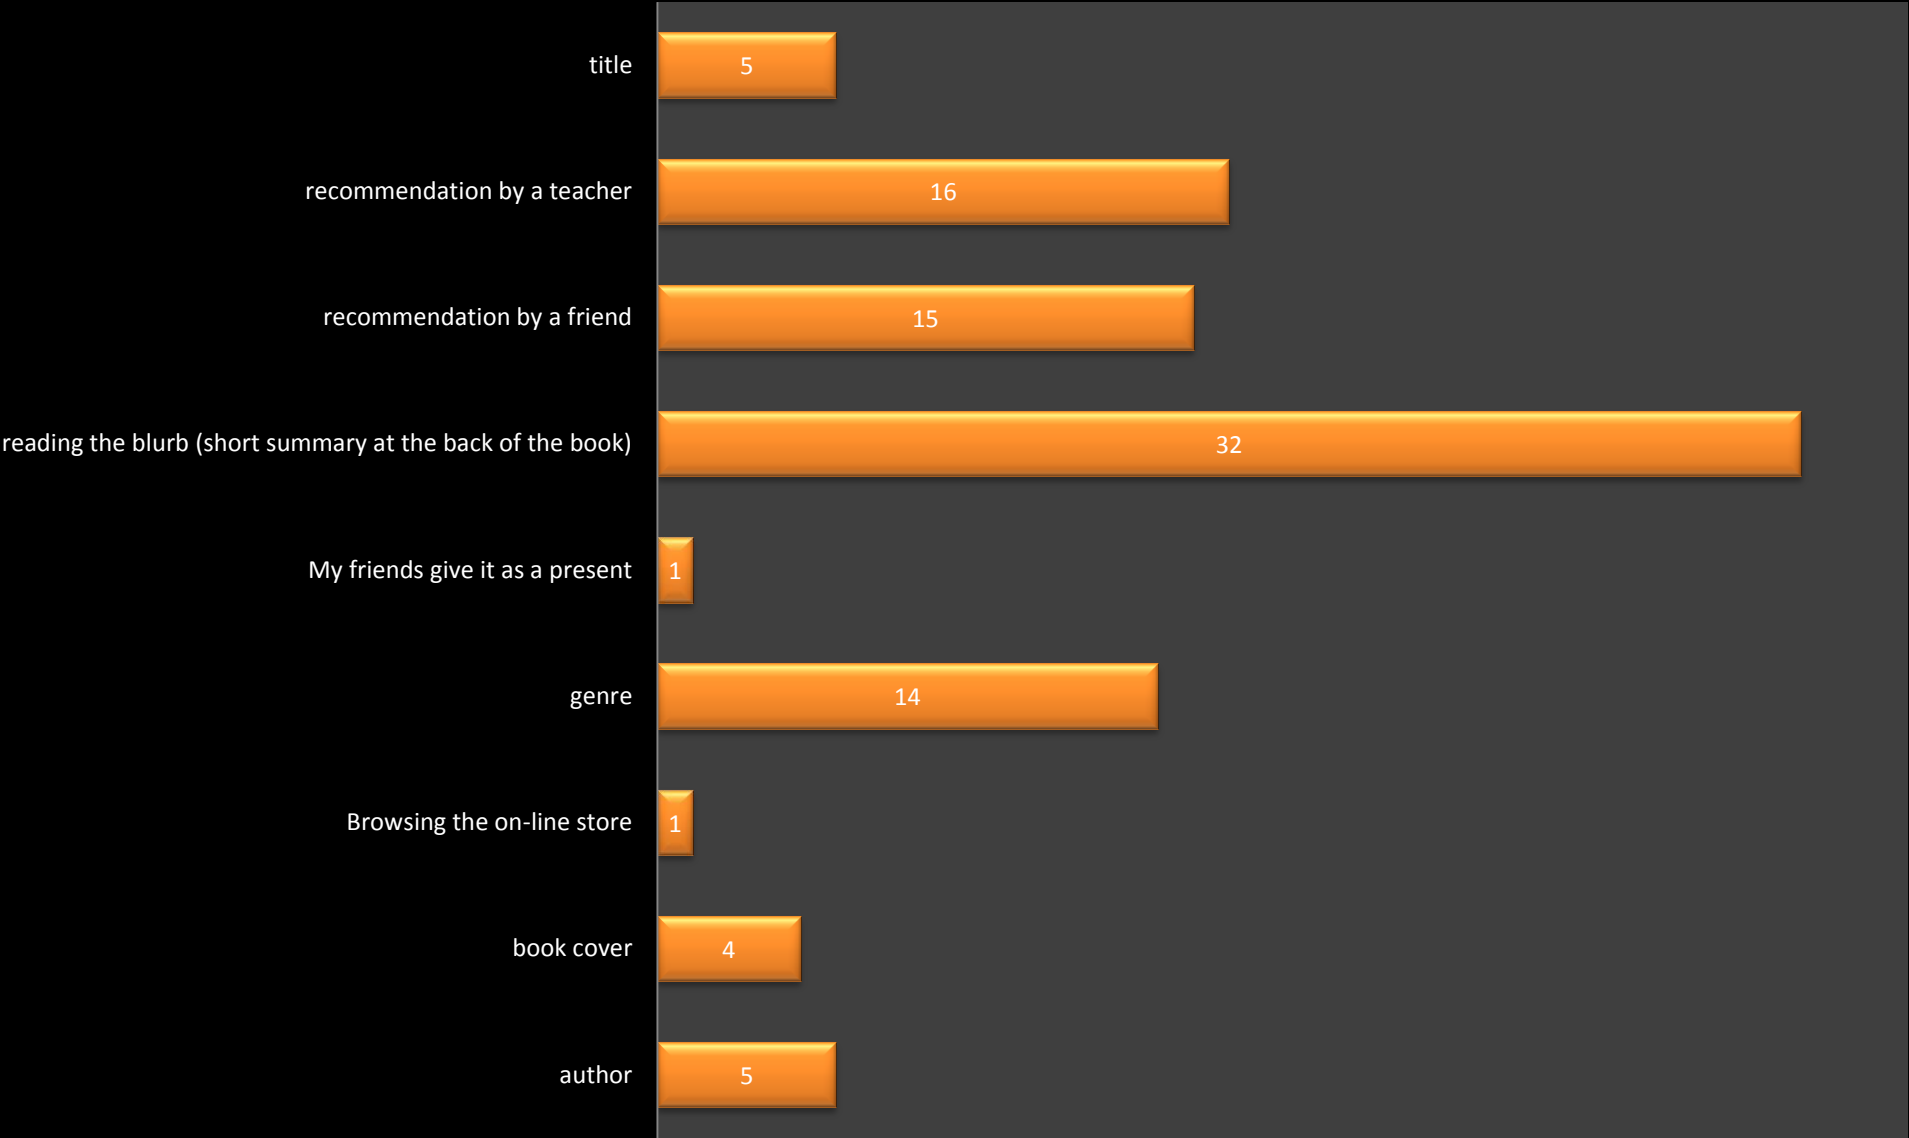

How often do you visit the library?

■ few times a month ■ few times a week ■ few times a year ■ not at all

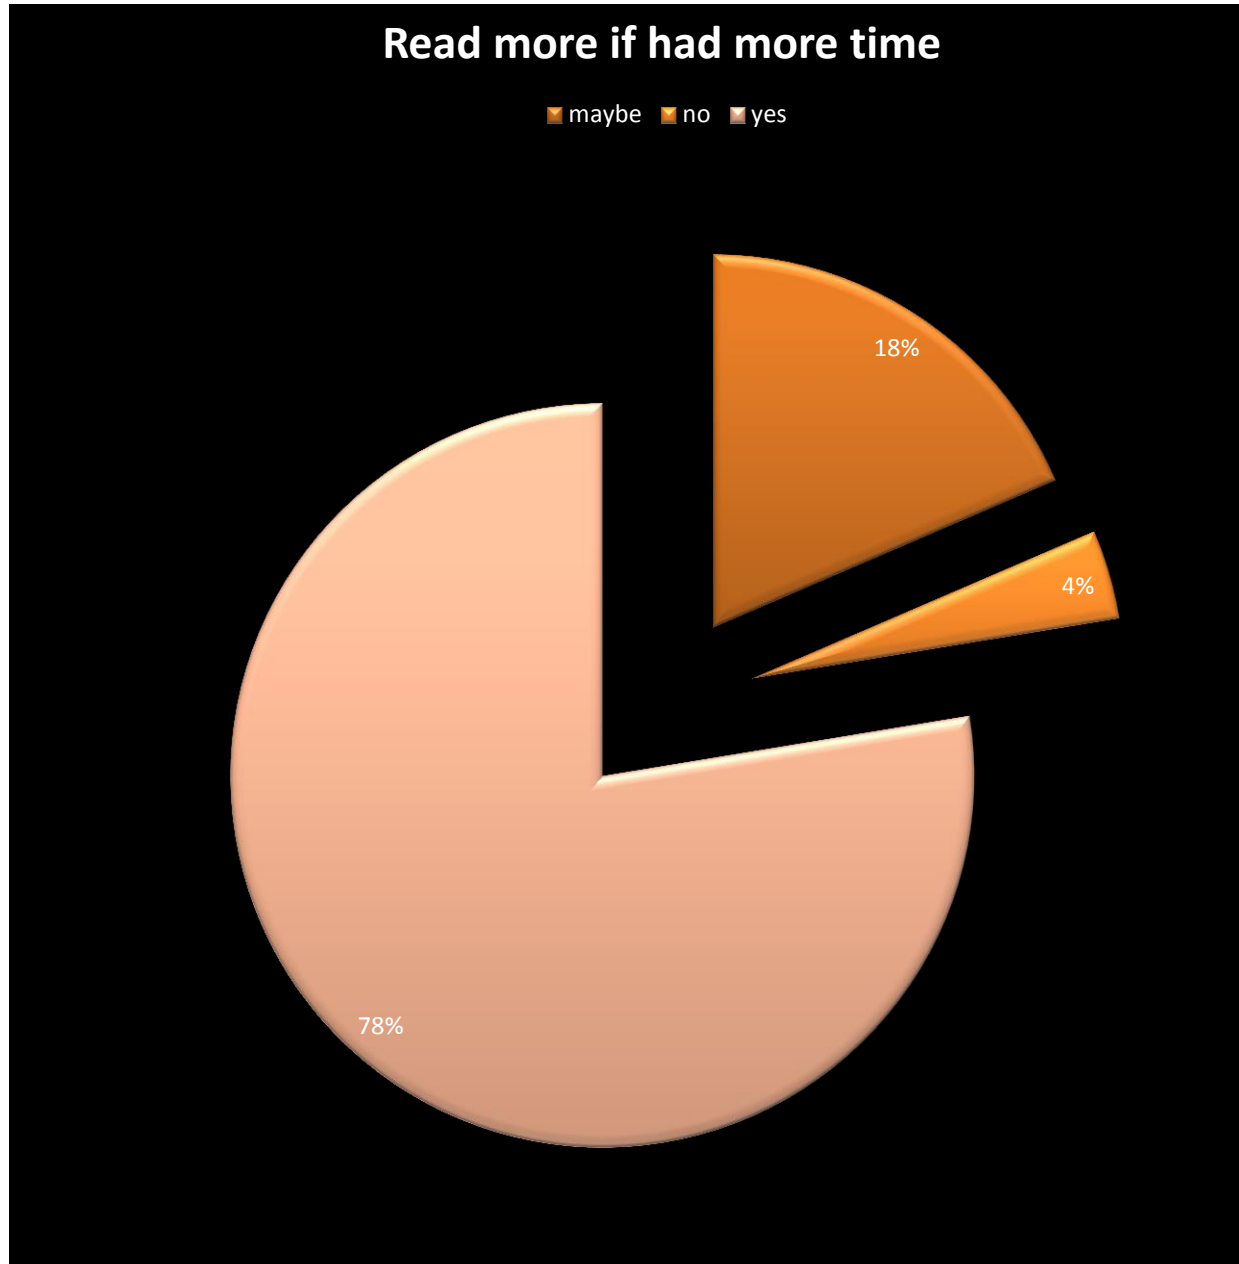

It is evident from our findings that - besides the summary of the book - recommendation has a great impact on the students' choice of which book to read. It is really important finding for us.

How do you decide which book to read?

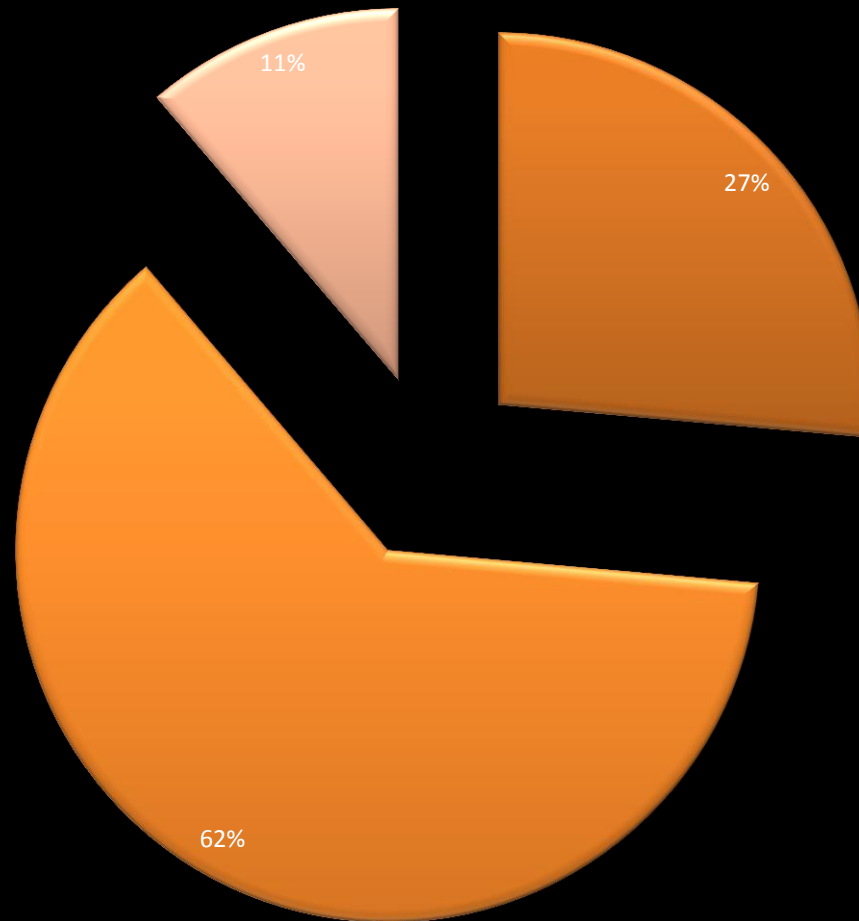

Obviously, students are rather occupied with their school-related activities, therefore they do not have enough time to read. We will aim at incorporating reading-related activities in their everyday routine.
