

Our common reader: The Canterville ghost

We summarised the story and made word cloudes from them

"Mr. Otis moved to England and settled down in Canterville Chase. He wanted to buy a house, but the owner told that there lived a ghost in it. Otis wasn't afraid of the ghost and bought the house and all his family moved there. They noticed a red stain of blood in the library. Mr. Otis managed to remove it and that made the ghost angry. The ghost began to frighten the family but they ignored him. After some time Virginia made friends with the ghost. In the end the ghost fell asleep."

"Mr Otis relocates to Canterville Castle, where a ghost scares people off. Otis and his family aren't afraid of the ghost. They laugh at and play tricks on him. One day the daughter sees the ghost who tells her his story, and thanks to her compassion, his soul is set free."

OUR NEWSPAPER REPORTS:

The Canterville Ghost

Mr. Otis

-Well guys we are here with an American patriot his name is Mr Otis and he come from New York.
Why you decided to buy that house?
+I hate the traffic of big cities and how I work in London it feels good live in the outskirts -Okay good answer. Have you feel some time terrifying about the ghost? +No, I never feel terrifying because I don't think that the ghost exist -But you were living with one +I'm sure that he was a dumb dress-up This guy is a real American.

Virginia

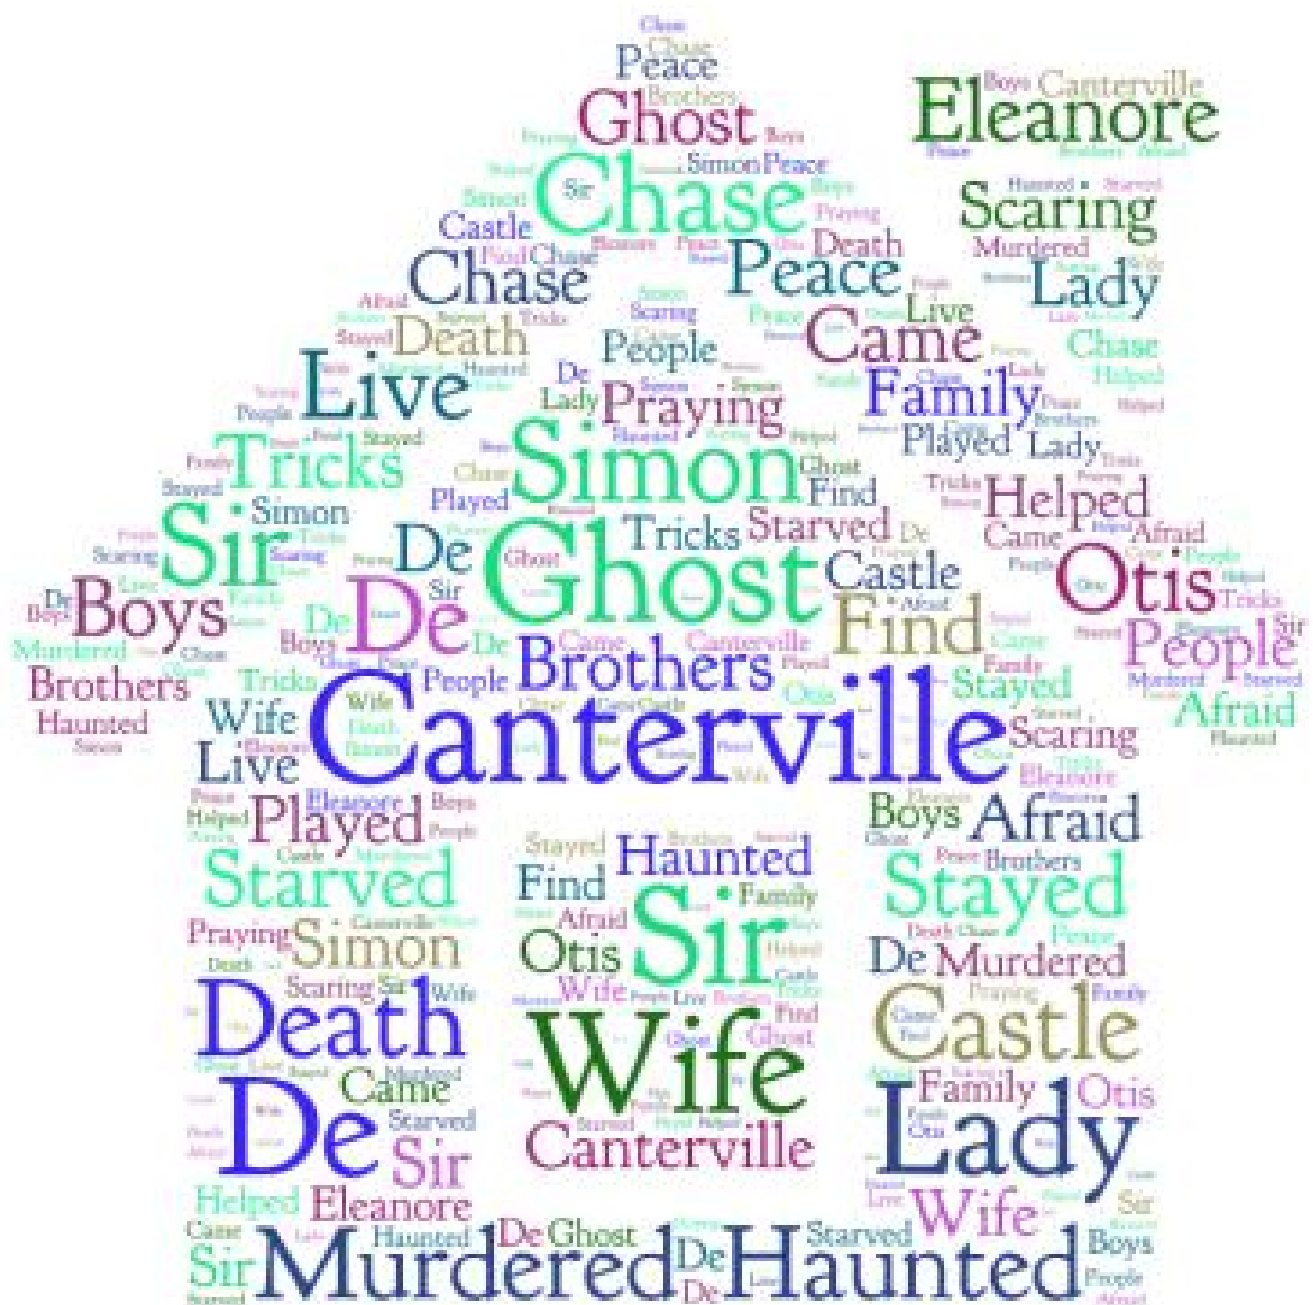

-That's an interview from Virginia from Canterville house. Well Virginia, have you any brother?
+Yes, I have two smaller than me; they are twins and other older, whose name is Washington. He is too sensitive but I think that it is adorable
-How was the ghost?
+His name was Simon and was a great man
Then Virginia left the room crying

The Otis family was a rich American family from New York. The family was a large and very old house on the outskirts of London. But in this house live a ghost (the Canterville ghost). Lord Canterville question to the family if they like look at the inside of house when they went saw a blood-stain in the floor of the library. The blood-stain was from the ghost wife that she had been killed by him, said Lord Canterville. Mr Otis cleared the blood-stain every day and the ghost do it every night. The ghost tried to scare the Otis family but his plans never worked as he expected. And then the ghost became good and won the respect of the family forever.

The castle of the Canterville ghost is a dark place, with rare and very old objects, you can feel how the pictures follow you with their look and you always hear the creaks landed over the "Canterville Chase was haunted by the ghost of Sir Simon de Canterville, who murdered his wife, Lady Eleanore de Canterville in 1575. Sir Simon was starved to death by his wife's brothers and stayed in the castle scaring people. The Otis family came to live in Canterville Chase and they were not afraid of the ghost. The boys played tricks on him and helped the ghost to find peace by praying for him."

THE CANTERVILLE GHOST

OSCAR WILDE

MR OTIS AND HIS FAMILY HAS SETTLED INTO CANTERVILLE CASTLE

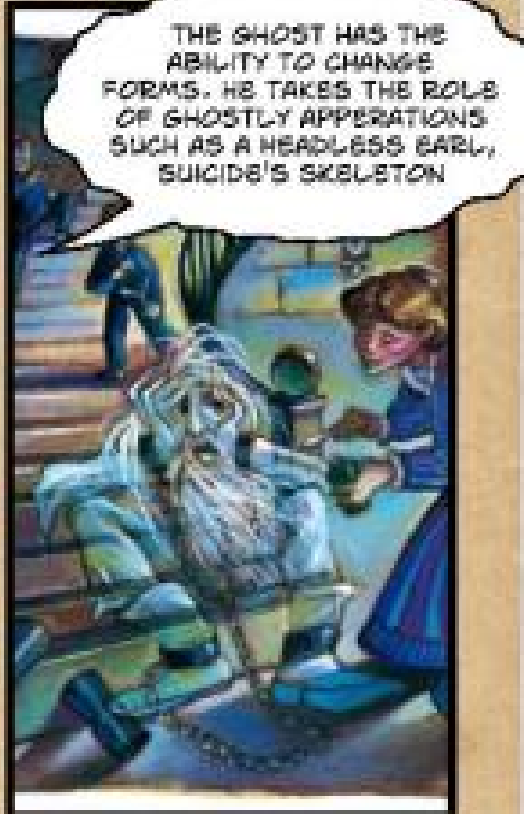

MR OTIS FAMILY AND HIS NAUGHTY SONS DIDN'T AFRAID OF GHOST

I WILL SCARE ALL OF THEM THAT THE HOUSE IS HAUNTED

THE GHOST DIDN'T LIKE NEW HOSTS OF THE CASTLE

THE GHOST HAS THE ABILITY TO CHANGE FORMS. HE TAKES THE ROLE OF GHOSTLY APPERATIONS SUCH AS A HEADLESS EARL, SUICIDE'S SKELETON

THIS IS ALL NONSENCE

BUT NONE OF THESE WORKS THESE AMERICANS. SIR SIMON Schemes, BUT EVEN AS HIS COSTUMES BECOME INCREASINGLY GRUESOME, HIS ANTICS DO NOTHING TO SCARE HIS HOUSE GUESTS.

GHOST ISN'T REAL. THESE ARE ALL TYPICAL ENGLISH STYLE. ENGLISH ANTIC AND TRADITIONAL BULLSHITS

DURING THE COURSE OF THE STORY, AS NARRATED FROM SIR SIMON'S VIEWPOINT, HE TELLS US THE COMPLEXITY OF THE GHOST'S EMOTIONS: HE SEES HIMSELF BRAVE, FRIGHTENING, DISTRESSED, SCARED, AND FINALLY, DEPRESSED AND WEAK. HE EXPOSES HIS VULNERABILITY DURING AN ENCOUNTER WITH VIRGINIA, THE OTIS'S FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER. VIRGINIA IS DIFFERENT FROM EVERYONE ELSE IN THE FAMILY, AND SIR SIMON RECOGNIZES THIS. HE TELLS HER THAT HE HAS NOT SLEPT IN THREE HUNDRED YEARS AND WANTS DESPERATELY TO DO SO. THE GHOST REVEALS TO VIRGINIA THE TRAGIC TALE OF HIS WIFE, LADY ELEANOR DE CANTERVILLE.

UNLIKE THE REST OF HER FAMILY, VIRGINIA DOES NOT DISMISS THE GHOST. SHE TAKES HIM SERIOUSLY! SHE LISTENS TO HIM AND LEARNS AN IMPORTANT LESSON, AS WELL AS THE TRUE MEANING BEHIND A RIDDLE. SIR SIMON DE CANTERVILLE SAYS THAT SHE MUST WEEP FOR HIM, FOR HE HAS NO TEARS; SHE MUST PRAY FOR HIM, FOR HE HAS NO FAITH; AND THEN SHE MUST ACCOMPANY HIM TO THE ANGEL OF DEATH AND BEG FOR DEATH'S MERCY UPON SIR SIMON. SHE DOES WEEP FOR HIM AND PRAY FOR HIM, AND SHE DISAPPEARS WITH SIR SIMON THROUGH THE WAINSCOTING AND GOES WITH HIM TO THE GARDEN OF DEATH AND BIDS THE GHOST FAREWELL. THEN SHE REAPPEARS AT MIDNIGHT,

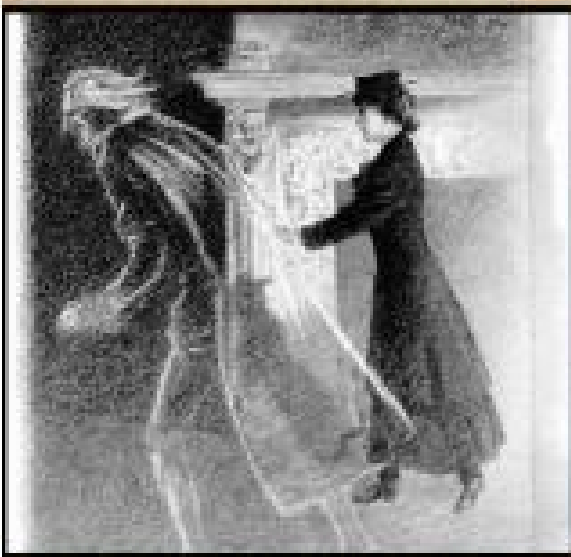

THEN SHE REAPPEARS AT MIDNIGHT, THROUGH A PANEL IN THE WALL, CARRYING JEWELS AND NEWS THAT SIR SIMON HAS PASSED ON TO THE NEXT WORLD AND NO LONGER RESIDES IN THE HOUSE.

The Canterville Ghost

An average American family acquires historic old Canterville Chase - complete with a ghost! Sir Simon, the sporting spirit, succeeds in making life miserable, until the family strikes back. Life is better and fantastically funny around Canterville Chase until the real solution to the problem of the galloping ghost is VIRGINIA'S ABILITY TO ACCEPT SIR SIMON LEADS TO HER ENLIGHTENMENT! SIR SIMON, SHE TELLS HER HUSBAND SEVERAL YEARS LATER, HELPED HER UNDERSTAND "WHAT LIFE IS, WHAT DEATH SIGNIFIES, AND WHY LOVE IS STRONGER THAN BOTH". THE STORY ENDS WITH VIRGINIA MARRYING THE DUKE OF CHESHIRE AFTER THEY BOTH GOMB OF ASS.

CANTERVILLE'S VOICE

Since 1956

Canterville Ghost is already a secret for all residents of Canterville town

Canterville, which has been known as the one of the most silent places of the world, is not a silent place anymore. The residents of the town, who claim that there is a haunted house in the town, focus on the pavilion now.

Strange noises and voices are heard by the resident according to the rumours. Residents have put forward a lot of assertions about the haunted house so far.

Interview

Correspondent: What can you tell me about the ghost in the castle?

Resident of the town: People say it's frightening. It is wearing torn and old-fashioned clothes. The little daughter of my neighbor saw it while looking at the windows at the castle.

Correspondent: What is the ghost look like? Have you ever seen it?

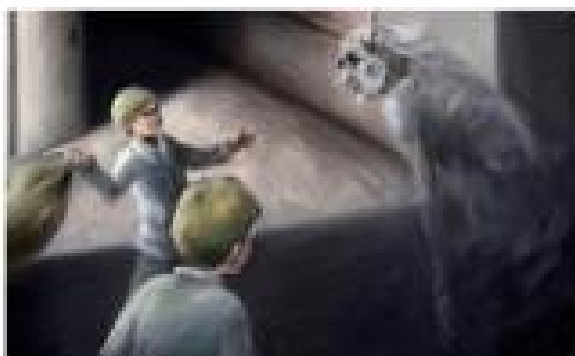

Ex-driver of the castle: Once, I was going up to my room in the attic. I saw a dark shadow extinguished all the candles that was burning in the hall.

THE GHOST DIED

The famous Canterville ghost, that we have mentioned before, died. The ghost died almost 300 years later according to the information we have got from Mr. Otis and his family who have just moved to the castle.

Correspondent: What was the first experience you had with the ghost? What is it like?

Mr. Otis: I suddenly woke up with a strange noise at a night I had moved to the pavilion. It sounded like a metal clanking and it was coming closer. I got up and looked at the time. It was a small bottle out of a drawer and opened door. There was an old man on the right and he was standing. He looked terrible. His eyes were red like hot burning coals. He had dirty long hair. He was wearing old-fashioned clothes which were torn and dirty. He had some chains on his wrists and ankles. I told him that: "those chains are making an awful noise. I have brought you some oil. Please put it on your chains, otherwise we will not be able to sleep tonight."

Interview

Correspondent: You were the closest person to the ghost. What was the ghost like?

Virginia: Although people had bias against him that he was a strange thing, he was a very good thing.

Correspondent: Weren't you afraid of him?

Virginia: I was a bit afraid of him at first, but I thought that he could be like one of us when I saw him lying in the bed as an ill person.

FINALLY THE CASTLE IS FREE

After years of research, we discovered that the castle finally is free of ghost. To continue, we go to tell you a story about the Canterville Castle.

The Otis family bought "The Canterville Castle" outside of London. The Canterville Castle had a ghost, but for them, this wasn't important.

The Ghost murdered his wife in the Castle, because she was unfaithful; So the family found blood on the floor, but they cleaned it, but every morning appeared the stain again; the stain color changed, because the ghost had not more red paint to simulate the blood (He painted the stain because, the stain remembered his wife).

At night, the ghost appeared to frighten the family, but the ghost couldn't frighten, instead they laughed at him, so the ghost was sad.

One night, the ghost talked to the daughter, Virginia; and she said that she wasn't frighten, and she was sad for his situation.

The ghost remembered that he needed a good person who helped him to be peace and to be free.

The Canterville Castle was in a darkness forest. When the ghost was free, the forest flourished.

The daughter, Virginia, explained the situation to her family, was happened with forest and why the ghost of Canterville didn't appear. The family was very surprised about story of the ghost. The Canterville Castle was quiet forever.

Yesterday, at night, me and my partners went to interview the ghost of Canterville, when he was in the Castle.

-Why have you staid three hundred years in this castle?

Because, I murdered my wife and I haven't got my soul in peace.

-How did you feel?

Really good, but when the Otis family come, they and their sons annoyed me a lot.

-Why did you paint the stain on the floor of Castle?

Because, when I murdered my wife for love, her blood was on this floor, but when the Otis family come, they cleaned it, so I painted the stain, because the stain remind me my wife.

-Why did you want to frighten the Otis family?

Because, my work was to frighten the families, who live in my castle.

Recently, I've received information about the ghost; and the end he can be free and to be in peace. The ghost gave thanks to Virginia, the daughter of Mr. Otis.

Now, we go to interview of twins sons of Mr. Otis.

-How did you enjoy with the ghost?

Very well, because we used he like a play.

-How did you feel the first time with the ghost?

Our first night living here was very funny and the rest of nights he played with him, we put he lots of traps to capture him.

-Why weren't you frighten of the ghost?

Because, the ghost wasn't really terrible and dangerous; and we are very brave.

-How did you feel when the ghost went out of the castle?

We were sad, because we laughed about him and we enjoyed with him, and at the end The Castle was very boring and it was lonely without him.

On the outskirts of London, there is a great old castle, where you can enjoy its views beautiful rooms.

THE CANTERVILLE GHOST VISITS THE ST THOMAS AQUINO-THE MILAGROSA'S SCHOOL

"BEING SCARY ISN'T WHAT IT USED TO BE"

All these years we thought that Sir Simon de Canterville (the famous ghost from the Canterville's house, in London) died in the Garden of Death (or the Garden of Sleep, as the ghost prefers), but last Wednesday the entity appeared in the front door of the building with another person, Virginia. Interested, we talked to them and they told us about their lives (or in the case of the ghost, his after-life) and what has become of them.

Virginia told us that after her adventure with Sir Simon she became interested in the supernatural and began to study parapsychology (the science that studies paranormal stuff) and traveled around the world with the purpose of finding more lost ghosts and freeing them.

On the other hand, her family has lived since then in Canterville Chase. Her father had a very famous company in the city and her mother was the housewife, while the twins continued their studies.

"As for me, I've been busy chilling out in my sunbed in the Garden of Sleep" says Sir Simon, who apparently has been trapped in this plane, helping Virginia with her discoveries since he can't leave this world.

With so much interesting information, we couldn't stay like that, so we interviewed them about the real story behind the walls of the house of Canterville Chase.

"My dear sir, your chains make a terrible noise," Mr Otis said to the ghost. "You must put some oil on those chains. Here is some Tammany Rising Sun Oil from the United States. Please put the oil on your chains."

In Canterville Chase, the large and very old house near London has become one of the most important tourist attractions in the town. The building has all the characteristics of a haunted house so, of course, the castle has a gothic style and atmosphere. Inside the castle there is a library (with blood-stain included) and the famous armour with three hundred years old.

On the second floor, there are the bedrooms where the Otis slept. Also, there is a secret room where the ghost, Sir Simon de Canterville, was locked up.

J: "We are so glad to have you both, but let's get to the point. Could you tell us why did you help Simon?"

V: I felt sorry for Simon, so I tried to help him.

S: And oh how she helped me.

V: ...

J: Is that sarcasm or...?

J: "We know that one of the most suspenseful scenes was when you went in the darkness with Simon. What did you see?"

V: I saw my biggest fear but I wasn't say what it is...

S: (Whispering) It was spiders.

V: HEY!

J: "We're pretty amazed that you became a parapsychologist because you being a woman. Was it difficult to you?"

V: Well, it was hard to be recognized like it was supposed to be, but at the end I managed to achieve it.

S: With my help, of course.

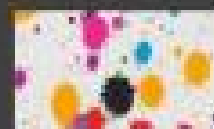

V: Right!

S: Really? (He gets near the journalist) She couldn't differentiate a poltergeist from a ghost.

V: Hey! It wasn't my fault that they were so similar!

FINALLY THE CASTLE IS FREE

The story begins when Hiram B. Otis and his family move into Canterville Chase despite the warnings from Lord Canterville that the house is haunted. The Otis family includes Mr. And Mrs. Otis, their daughter Virginia, twin boys (often referred to as "Stars and stripes") and their eldest son Washington. After some time the family realises that the ghost surely does exist. The family hears clanking of the chains, they witness re-appearing bloodstains on the carpet, and they see strange apparitions in various forms. Despite Ghost's attempts to appear in the scariest disguises, the family is not frightened, and the ghost feels helpless.

CANTERVILLE CASTLE

Virginia encounters the ghost and he exposes his vulnerability to her. He tells her that he has not slept in three hundred years and wants desperately to do so. The ghost reveals to Virginia the tragic tale of his wife, Lady Eleanor de Canterville. He tells her that she must cry for him because he has no tears, and she must pray for him because he has no faith and then she must accompany him to the angel of death and beg for Death's mercy upon him. She does that and he passes on the other world and the house is not longer possessed by the ghost.

Several years later, Virginia tells her husband that the ghost helped her understand what life is, what death signifies, and why love is stronger than both.

Adventures in Canterville Chase

We all thought, that a problem of Canterville ghost is finally solved. But several weeks later, the castle was still full of sadness. No jokes, no mischief. There was only peace and quiet. Wasn't it a dream house? But something was wrong...

After a funeral of Sir Simon de Canterville, according to Otises, his wife's ghost appeared. She tried to destroy the house, even to hurt little Virginia.

One afternoon, while Virginia was around her. The hands were taking care of the flowers on Sir Simon's grave, his wife's ghost was planning a murder. She had planned to drown a girl in a deep pond near the grave. As soon as Virginia walked by the pond, a ghost pushed her in to the black water. Besides, the water was freezing and she was too shocked to save herself. She was screaming, but no one could hear her, except the murderer. The ghost was proud, but something was killing her from the inside. Is that how she solves problems? By killing? That minute the girl felt warm. She felt someone's hands taking her up. It was a miracle! Accidentally, Virginia saw a white spot sinking in the water. It was a free spirit. God has forgiven her.

Canterville Chase is a large and very old house in the countryside in the western part of London. It is not the heart of the city, so you can relax, let yourself enjoy ancient beauty. In the house there are 32 rooms, which are gorgeous, full of statues of Sir Simon de Canterville, a legend of this mystical building. Somebody says, at midnight you can still hear screaming from the basement. Isn't that exciting? Nevertheless, nothing compares to the beauty of the environment. Far away in the woods there is a little garden. There the grass grows high and thick. Moreover, there are a lot of roses, amazing tulips, colourful clovers. You will be impressed by this nature beauty. I would like to reveal a secret, that at night, when the sky is full of stars, a nightingale sings all night long. Pale moon looks down on this little garden and it is very powerful, so romantic and dreamful. A great place for couples, lovers - or parents.

FINALLY THE CASTLE IS FREE

After years of research, we discovered that the castle finally is free of ghost. To continue, we go to tell you a story about the Canterville Castle.

The Otis family bought "The Canterville Castle" outside of London. The Canterville Castle had a ghost, but for them, this wasn't important.

The Ghost murdered his wife in the Castle, because she was unfaithful; So the family found blood on the floor, but they cleaned it, but every morning appeared the stain again; the stain color changed, because the ghost had not more red paint to simulate the blood (He painted the stain because, the stain remembered his wife).

At night, the ghost appeared to frighten the family, but the ghost couldn't frighten, instead they laughed at him, so the ghost was sad.

One night, the ghost talked to the daughter, Virginia; and she said that she wasn't frighten, and she was sad for his situation.

The ghost remembered that he needed a good person who helped him to be peace and to be free.

The Canterville Castle was in a darkness forest. When the ghost was free, the forest flourished.

The daughter, Virginia, explained the situation to her family, was happened with forest and why the ghost of Canterville didn't appear. The family was very surprised about story of the ghost. The Canterville Castle was quiet forever.

Yesterday, at night, me and my partners went to interview the ghost of Canterville, when he was in the Castle.

-Why have you staid three hundred years in this castle?

Because, I murdered my wife and I haven't got my soul in peace.

-How did you feel?

Really good, but when the Otis family come, they and their sons annoyed me a lot.

-Why did you paint the stain on the floor of Castle?

Because, when I murdered my wife for love, her blood was on this floor, but when the Otis family come, they cleaned it, so I painted the stain, because the stain remind me my wife.

-Why did you want to frighten the Otis family?

Because, my work was to frighten the families, who live in my castle.

Recently, I've received information about the ghost; and the end he can be free and to be in peace. The ghost gave thanks to Virginia, the daughter of Mr. Otis.

Now, we go to interview of twins sons of Mr. Otis.

-How did you enjoy with the ghost?

Very well, because we used he like a play.

-How did you feel the first time with the ghost?

Our first night living here was very funny and the rest of nights he played with him, we put he lots of traps to capture him.

-Why weren't you frighten of the ghost?

Because, the ghost wasn't really terrible and dangerous; and we are very brave.

-How did you feel when the ghost went out of the castle?

We were sad, because we laughed about him and we enjoyed with him, and at the end The Castle was very boring and it was lonely without him.

THE

GHOST

This is a story about a family who moves to live to the west part of the countryside of London. They come from America, so they buy a big house called Canterville Chase. The owner of the house, warn them of the presence of a ghost, who had frightened all the servants of the house, so just the housekeeper, Mrs Umney, would stay with them.

Mr. Hiram B. Otis and his family were not afraid of ghosts, so they decided to buy the Canterville Chase. Mrs Umney showed them the whole house, and while they were at the library, Mrs Otis saw a red stain. She did not like stains at her library, so Washington Otis, the oldest son, cleaned it. Mrs Umney explained them the story of The Canterville Ghost, who has killed his wife in that place three hundred years ago, so that red stain was the blood of the wife of the Canterville Ghost, and anyone had never removed that stain.

Every night, while everyone was sleeping the Canterville Ghost tried to frighten the sons of Mr. Otis, but they never were scared of him, so he was a really unhappy ghost.

Miss Virginia, the daughter, was afraid and worried for the ghost. Her brothers were always playing tricks to him, so, one day, in the afternoon she went to the library where the ghost stayed. The ghost wanted to rest forever, but he could not. He needed the help of Virginia, so she decided to help him. For a long time, she and the ghost were disappeared, and her family was worried.

Finally at midnight, she appeared upstairs, and she told them about the story of the ghost. Four days later, they prepared a funeral for the Sir Simon of Canterville's soul.

THE CANTERVILLE CHASE: As you would suppose, Canterville Chase is a really old house where The Otis, an American family lives. That house is at the countryside, so you don't have any neighbors, its a lonely place. In the house, an ugly ghost has been living for three hundred years, he murdered his wife and he also was murdered by her wifes brothers. At the house, just the housekeeper lives because everyone is scared of ghosts, and the main plot is developed in the library of the house, where there is a blood stain of Sir Simons wife, and the main corridor upstairs, where the ghost tries to scare the life twins of the Otis family, but he cant.

Interviewer: Well, Sir Simon, I would like to ask to you some questions about your old lifestyle and your relationship with Miss Virginia. What did you used to do before the Otis arrived to the Canterville Chase?
Sir Simon: At first, just a few days after I was murdered, I was lost, I felt really strange, I was always cold and it was difficult to me to move through the house without legs, so I stayed at my secret bedroom for two years at least. Then I decided to visit all the rooms, everyone was scared of me and I also was scared of them. But I realized that my job was frightening people, and that is what I did for the following hundreds of years, until the Otis arrived.

Interviewer: This is my last question. What did you do while you were with Virginia in your secret room?

Sir Simon: I was exhausted so I just told her the steps to let me rest, forever. But I can not tell you that instructions, they are secret...

Interviewer: Welcome Miss Virginia, I would like to ask to you some questions about your entrance to Canterville Chase.

How was your first idea or impression when Mrs Umney told you about The ghost?

Virginia: As you know, I am quite fearful, so I couldn't sleep at night the first days because we always faced the blood stains. It was really difficult to me to get used to that old house, but I finally did.

Interviewer: Oh, as you first were scared but after, you decided to help Sir Simon, please, can you tell us why he couldn't sleep?

Virginia: I do not really know, but I think that anyone prayed for his soul and anyone he has rest in peace, so I think he just could wait until someone like me would help him.

Interviewer: The last question, Why did you help the ghost, what did he do to make you help him?
Virginia: Over time I was scared... I just thought he was very sad because my brothers were always playing tricks to him, so I thought it was a good idea to help him. I try to be as kind as possible.

Visit Canterville!

The castle is free at last!

After hundreds of years of misery and terror, Canterville Chase is finally free of its ghost thanks to the Otis family that came to our town from America. Mr Otis, his wife Lucretia, and their three sons and a daughter were brave enough to face the ghost instead of running away from it, making our beautiful small town peaceful and quiet again.

As we have reported many times in our paper, Canterville Chase was inhabited by the ghost of Sir Simon de Canterville, who murdered his wife, Lady Eleanore de Canterville in 1575. Ever since then, right until last week the inhabitants of the castle had been haunted by the ghost of Sir Simon, who died within the walls of the castle starved to death by his wife's brothers. He made it impossible for everyone to live in that place forcing Lord Canterville to sell his mansion to the Otis family. It was owing to their bravery and practicality that our town is free again, as they faced up to the challenge and did not get intimidated by the ghost. Naturally, we need to emphasize the importance of Virginia Otis, whose compassion helped the ghost of old Sir Simon to leave this world and find eternal peace.

Come and visit Canterville!

If you are looking for a place, where you can stay and relax, Canterville Chase is appropriate for you. Canterville Chase is an ancient castle in the countryside west of London. Because of the localization, it is very peaceful and calm so it is perfect for a holiday. The castle has long corridors with a lot of beautiful and spacious rooms so you can stay there with your family or with several friends as well. There is a library with many books on bookshelves, paintings on the wall and a huge fireplace. Also, the castle has an amazing garden. Various species of flowers, trees and fruits grow all around the house. Several years ago a ghost, whose name was Canterville Ghost, lived in the castle but don't worry nowadays Canterville Chase is 100% ghostless!

Interview with the witnesses

After the Canterville ghost went to a better place, I decided to ask some questions about the whole story. I managed to get some answers from Virginia, the young lady who helped the ghost.

Interviewer: Hi, thanks for making time for me. Let's begin. Why did you feel you had to help the ghost?

Virginia: It's very easy to explain. Firstly, I try to treat others the way I want to be treated. Secondly, I felt sorry for him because of my brothers.

Interviewer: Why weren't you afraid of him?

Virginia: Actually, it's a good question. I think I felt some regret when I spoke to him and he could've hurt me any time but he didn't.

Interviewer: And last but not least, what do you advise for anyone with this problem?

Virginia: Nothing, but be kind and helpful. Moving onto the next "guest" who is one of the twin brothers.

Interviewer: Hi! Thanks for your time. I'd like to ask only one question, why did you treat the ghost like that, why did you prank him?

Twin: We thought it'd be a great fun. Ghosts think they're scary and that they can prank us. We wanted to change that.
