

December traditions

Mady by jochem
and armaaan

Saint Nicholas, Pieten, horse and steamer

Sinterklaas comes from Spain and comes here with a steamer with his horse and his pieten

Sinterklaas arrives with his steamer and Black Pedros from Spain the Netherlands

This tradition starts he end of november and end 5th of December with a visit from Sint in school and sometimes at home.

He bring us presents on the evening of 5th december.

In the days leading up to the 5th of December, children put their shoes in front of the fire (or the radiator) in the hope that Sinterklaas will fill it with a small present or a chocolate goody. Some children think they can get around the Sint by leaving a carrot for the bishop's horse, accompanied by a wish list. In the olden days a disobedient child would find a packet of salt in his/her shoe but these days this is deemed too traumatic.

Made by Joël and Guus

Candy sinterklaas

Kruidnoten
(cookies)

Sinterklaas and black piet

meringues

Chocolate letters

marzipan

Made by Silver en Yara

50% of Dutch households still celebrate Sinterklaas, especially ones with small children.
On 6 December, Sinterklaas departs without any ado, and all festivities are over.

Christmas eve

To the church
Gourmet
Presents
Family

Thom and Gijs

Last Christmas, I gave you my heart
but the very next day,
You gave it away

YOU HAVE: " SANTA TELL ME, JINGLE bells,last christmas and all I want for christmas is you.

h, I just want
you for my own,
more than you
could ever know

Santa Tell Me -
Ariana Grande

Christmas Market

The Christmas market looks beautiful.

It is also beautifully with all kinds of lights. and there are many Christmas trees and when Christmas is over you will find all those Christmas trees on the street. it is a supper fun tradition.

Amber and Marjolein

© ROWIN VAN DIE

New years Eve

- In the Netherlands we love very tasty food snacks and tasty drinks on New years eve. And of course fireworks and oliebollen that is a greasy bite with a lot of sugar.

Oh the page is completely full so bye greetings from the Netherlands.

From isen and matthijs