5. Meeting people having different habits can be interesting... Name one thing you experienced as being different/interesting.

Most common or significant answers

- The food: Slovaks eat a lot of meat
- Eating times
- The food, the culture and the responsible one that they get to be.
- The food was so different from what we are used to at home. It also seems that everything there was much quieter there, no rush.
- There were horses in school
- The traditional dances

6. Have you encountered language difficulties? If so, how did you manage to make yourself clear?

Most common or significant answers

- I used sign language and Google translator
- Sign language
- I think travelling makes you more open and accepted. Talking with a stranger forces you to be nice and quickly change your mood and it's amazing that you can connect with other people and all this helps improve your English.
- Yes, a bit with gestures.
- If you want to say something but you can't come up with a few words, try formulating the sentence differently with words you know. And if it really doesn't work, use a translator.
- I don't know English so my teachers translated when I asked for help

7. Think of yourself being 20 years older... ;-) What is it you will remember from this Erasmus+ meeting?

Most common or significant answers

- The warm atmosphere, the lush nature
- My host family and the way the houses look
- I will remember the landscapes and their high mountains and above all the lovely people who welcomed us.

- I came to know different ways of thinking, different cultures, and I met very nice people
- Everything, the people from the other countries, what I learned about recycling, all.
- The beautiful sunshine... ;-)) (As the great atmosphere during working and being together made it all look as if there was a bright sun!)
- The beautiful nature! But especially all the sweet and nice new people I have met. We were such a close group. I hope that someday we will meet again in the future.
- How to recycle in Slovakia
- How nice the school was
- Erasmus is great and I will tell it to my children so they can do Erasmus as well.
- Working and having fun with new friends
- A wonderful week with gorgeous people and awesome landscape
