

HUNTING AND FISHING IN KALYMNOS

Kalymnos is geographically located south of Leros from which it is divided, the ve “Diapori” (a small canal), having to. Kos and just 14 miles east to the Turkish coast of Asia Minor. To South by the Cretan Sea and to the West and North Icarian Sea.

The land is relatively small rocky mountain plains with a total area of 109 sq. km. The mountains of Kalymnos is treeless with major peaks of the Prophet Elias, right in the center of the island (760 meters), Kyra High or Karapsili (700 meters) on the SE. and “Galatiani” in the NW. end.

The shores of Kalymnos is about forming multiple precipitous headlands, bays and ports. Of these the most important are, the capital of the island and port called Pothaias (NA.), the nose, the north, the pedestrian Pezontas or even farther north, the bay Palaionisou V.VA. the trade (D.VD.), the Linaria, the south and the jar to South.

It is no coincidence that it is often called “the island of height and depth”, since this strong contrast in morphology rightly justify this definition.

As a 'result, the island has been developed (primarily for financial reasons, and later for fun) but hunting and fishing, which are lure more global tourism.

Hunting.

Hunting in Kalymnos is one of the most familiar occupations on the island. “Small” and large involved with it, almost every home has a hound but at least one or two weapons (legally registered with the police). On the island there Kalymnos Hunters Club, who are numerically very large in relation to the number of residents permits issued each year exceeds the rate of 20% of the total population. The game holds the dominant position in hunting circles of Kalymnos is the mountain partridge, and wild rabbits. Certainly the success of the hunt the above lies not in the quantity of game, but the difficulty of their approach because of the difficult and rocky terrain to reach one key shot.

Fishing.

Fishing in Kalymnos is much more widespread than hunting this because from the sports of track, and is one of the main sources of income to the island.

Fishing in Kalymnos is like saying we oKARChARIAS5i Kalymnians in our blood, in our DNA. Kalymnos has bloomed each fishery, from classical and implicit form (fish) until the sponge, the ostrakalieia, fishing, coral, etc. But every form of fishing that is done and by land, and that done by boat. Therefore indeed professional and amateur fleet of Kalymnos, is the largest in Greece match if vessels with the total population.

Kalymnos one can then Chanakia to fish than to Thun and Cydonia up bubbles. Also, the island is one of the largest sources of supply octopus throughout Greece.

These few words about hunting and fishing in Kalymnos, but to say that we can not cover with their magic words unless you yourself can get a closer look and say such a trial will convince you .....
