

Ancient jobs

Potter

A potter is an ancient job. This job was very important and popular in ancient Ukraine. There were many potters here, because there was much clay. Potters made beautiful things from clay. Pottery is just a hobby in Ukraine now.

Miller

A miller is an ancient job too. Millers worked in the mills. They milled grain to get flour for bread. This job was very important in ancient Ukraine. There are no millers in modern Ukraine – everything is done by machines.
