

PBL – Work in Progress

“It was easy, but then I realized that it wasn't all that easy”

Drama Club - Class B

The first public presentation of the ongoing creative process of DEVISA Class B was named “It was easy, but then I realised that it wasn't all that easy” as a sort of acceptance of the problems inherent in this year's creative proposal: to come up with an interview that would allow us to explore our young performers' souls. Through a free flow of questions asked and answered in short frantic impros, a meandering map of personal references was drawn, a map of dreams, anecdotes, doubts and anxieties, a map that showed us the way to a 20-minute performance where a three-way interview was simulated, an interview without moderator and without moderation where the ultimate question, “who are you, really?” was let loose in search of an answer.
