

HI THERE!!!!

My name is Christian De Maria and I'm fifteen years old.

I study in Imola in a high school specialized in modern languages. I don't know what I'll do when I'm older, but I think that languages will help me. I'm quite tall and thin, but as I have been going to the gym for a few months, now I'm getting more and more well-built.

I'm brown-haired and brown-eyed.

I live with my parents and my sister in Villa Fontana, quite close to Bologna, and I hope to travel the world:

I'd love to visit the most beautiful European and American cities such as Paris, Amsterdam,

Moscow, London, Oslo, Stockholm, Copenhagen and naturally Los Angeles and New York.

I love rock music; I can't stand rap. I have played the electric bass for three years, but I prefer listening to music rather than playing it.

I like also watching films and TV series and playing video games.

I play mostly war games and role playing games, but obviously after studying.

Nowadays I'm not practicing any sports other than going to the gym, but I did taekwondo, a martial art, for seven years and basketball for one.

I love Norse mythology and culture and I'd love to visit Scandinavia, but this depends on my economic situation.

Hello everybody!

I'm Sofia and I'm fifteen. I live near Bologna in a big white house made of bricks. I have a younger sister and a dog called Snoopy. I have a very close-knit family who loves me and worries about me. I'm a student at "Alessandro da Imola" high school and I study English, French, Spanish and Latin. This is luckily the last year I study Latin.

I'm quite tall and quite slim. I have long blonde hair and green eyes.

I'm outgoing and playful. I always make jokes and riddles to my friends to be witty.

I'm also patient and helpful. I'm cheerful and I always smile. I don't have sad days.

I'm rather exuberant. I have some faults: for example, I love to make my sister nervous hiding her all her toys or her school books. I don't usually lend my things because I want to be the only who uses them. In my free time I go to the gym four times a week or I go to dance classes. I go shopping every weekend - I'm mad about shopping. At home I never do the cleaning or the cooking so my mum thinks I'm lazy.

In November I'm going to Justin Bieber's concert and I'm very excited

My name is Ginevra, I'm 15 years old and I live in Imola, a town near Bologna. I'm a student and I attend the second year at the high school "Alessandro da Imola" specialized in modern languages.

I chose this school because I really like to learn other languages and get to know more on other cultures. Knowledge is important if you like and want to travel as I do. I would like to travel around the world sooner or later..... preferably as soon as possible.

My other passions are: music – I play some instruments, the guitar is one; art – I love drawing and my favourite artist is Frida Kahlo; I also like reading and I love animals, especially cats. I have one, his name is Tobia. I am a rather reserved person, but I have a lot of friends and I really like to be surrounded by people, have fun with them and meeting new people.
