

Júlio Pomar

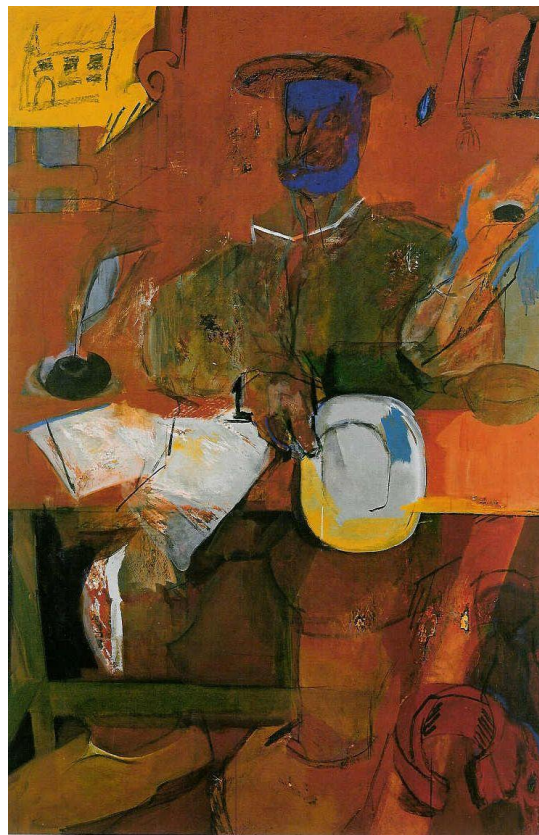

Júlio Artur da Silva Pomar, was born in Lisbon on the 10th January 1926. He was a portuguese visual artist /painter . He was part of the 3rd generation of Portuguese modernist painters, being author of a multiple work, focused on panting, drawing, ceramics and engraving, with important developments in the fields of tridimension or writing.

Some of Júlio Pomar's paintings

Graça Lobo,
Laranja

Camões

Kuka-Huka II

A Tartaruga

Gadanheiro

Currently, in Lisbon, there is the Atelier-Museum Júlio Pomar where his works are exhibited. The Lisbon City Council is responsible for the creation of the museum atelier and the Júlio Pomar Foundation, a critical discussion space, open to other creators and thinkers.

