

SOFT Meeting January 2020

Modern Art Museum and National Art Museum, TUESDAY 14.1.

Visit to museum: Example 1

- ◇ Students visited at two Museums: Modern art Museum Kiasma and National Art Museum Ateneum
- ◇ Students had tasks to do. They had to answer following questions and take photos when possible to support their answers.
- ◇ Questions:
 - ◇ - how nature is presented at art works?
 - ◇ - what kind of relationship is between human and other species?
 - ◇ - what represents "supernatural at art?"

Team Dark girls

- ◆ We learned about relationships and feelings in a painting

Team NoName art museum Ateneum

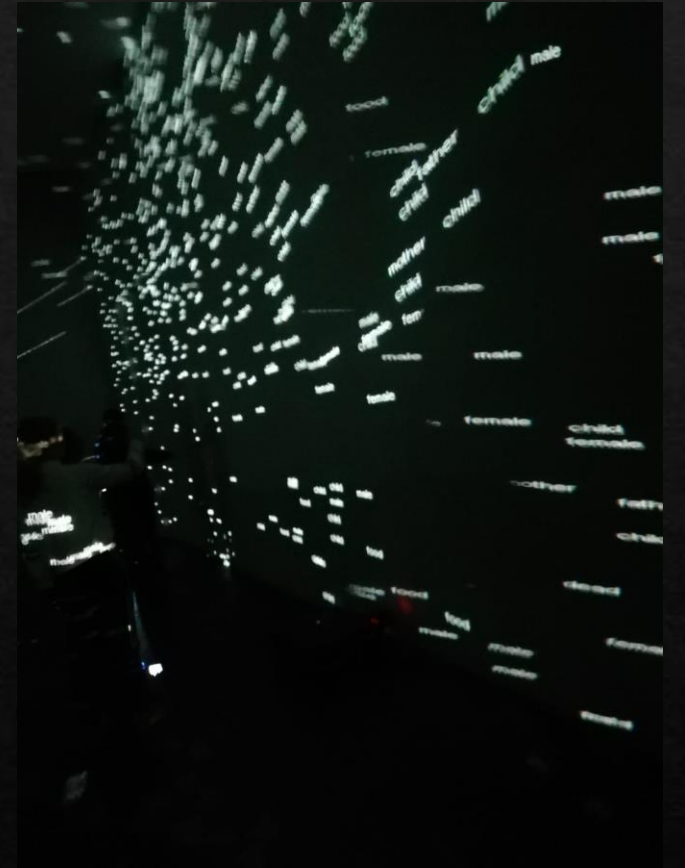

- ◆ We had tasks and while doing them we learned about arts
- ◆ We learned how the nature is presented in art works and what kind of relationship is between human and other species
- ◆ We also learned what represents supernatural at arts

Group 4/Cats

We learned about nature and human relations with it.

We also saw some examples of modern art.

Meatballs

At the modern art museum we saw a lot of cool pictures about human and nature.

We learned that art can be really interesting, and there is many ways to express yourself through art.

Woodpeckers

We took pictures of different types of art

We learnt how people can express themselves in different unimportant things

Group 7

- ◊ We were in the art museum Ateneum.
- ◊ We learned about finnish arts. (finnish nature, human and other species in nature and supernatural in art)

Manaatti

All of this paintings are nature and in the museum we can learn about the nature that surrounds us.

Flowergirls

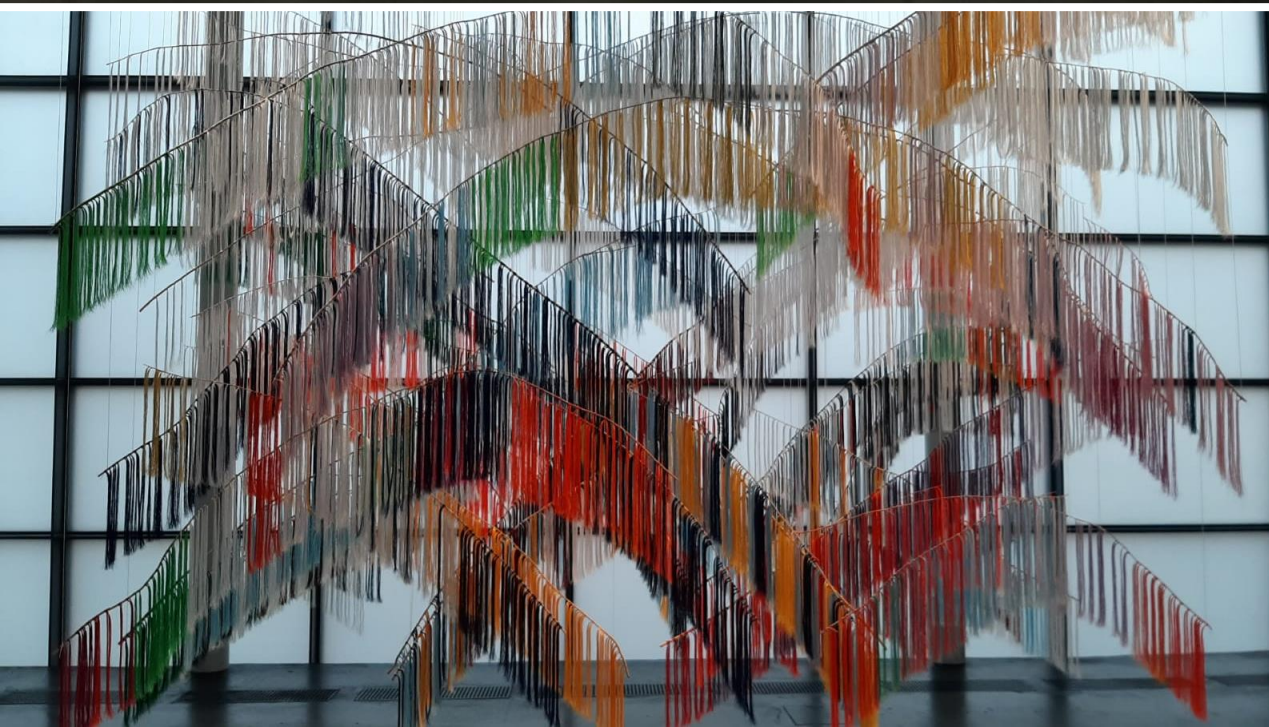

We learned the different interpretations you can have a of a painting. We appreciated the artwork.

"All of the gods and demigods are somehow connected to nature in finnish art, and nature is s very big part of the supernaturals here."

"The humans in the artwork have dominance over the animals, but they have a caring and a loving way of living."

Group 11 team nameless

- ◇ On tuesday we were at national art gallery called kiasma. There was lots of modern art. We learned how weird modern art can be. But after all, we liked about it.
