

GREEK FAMILY

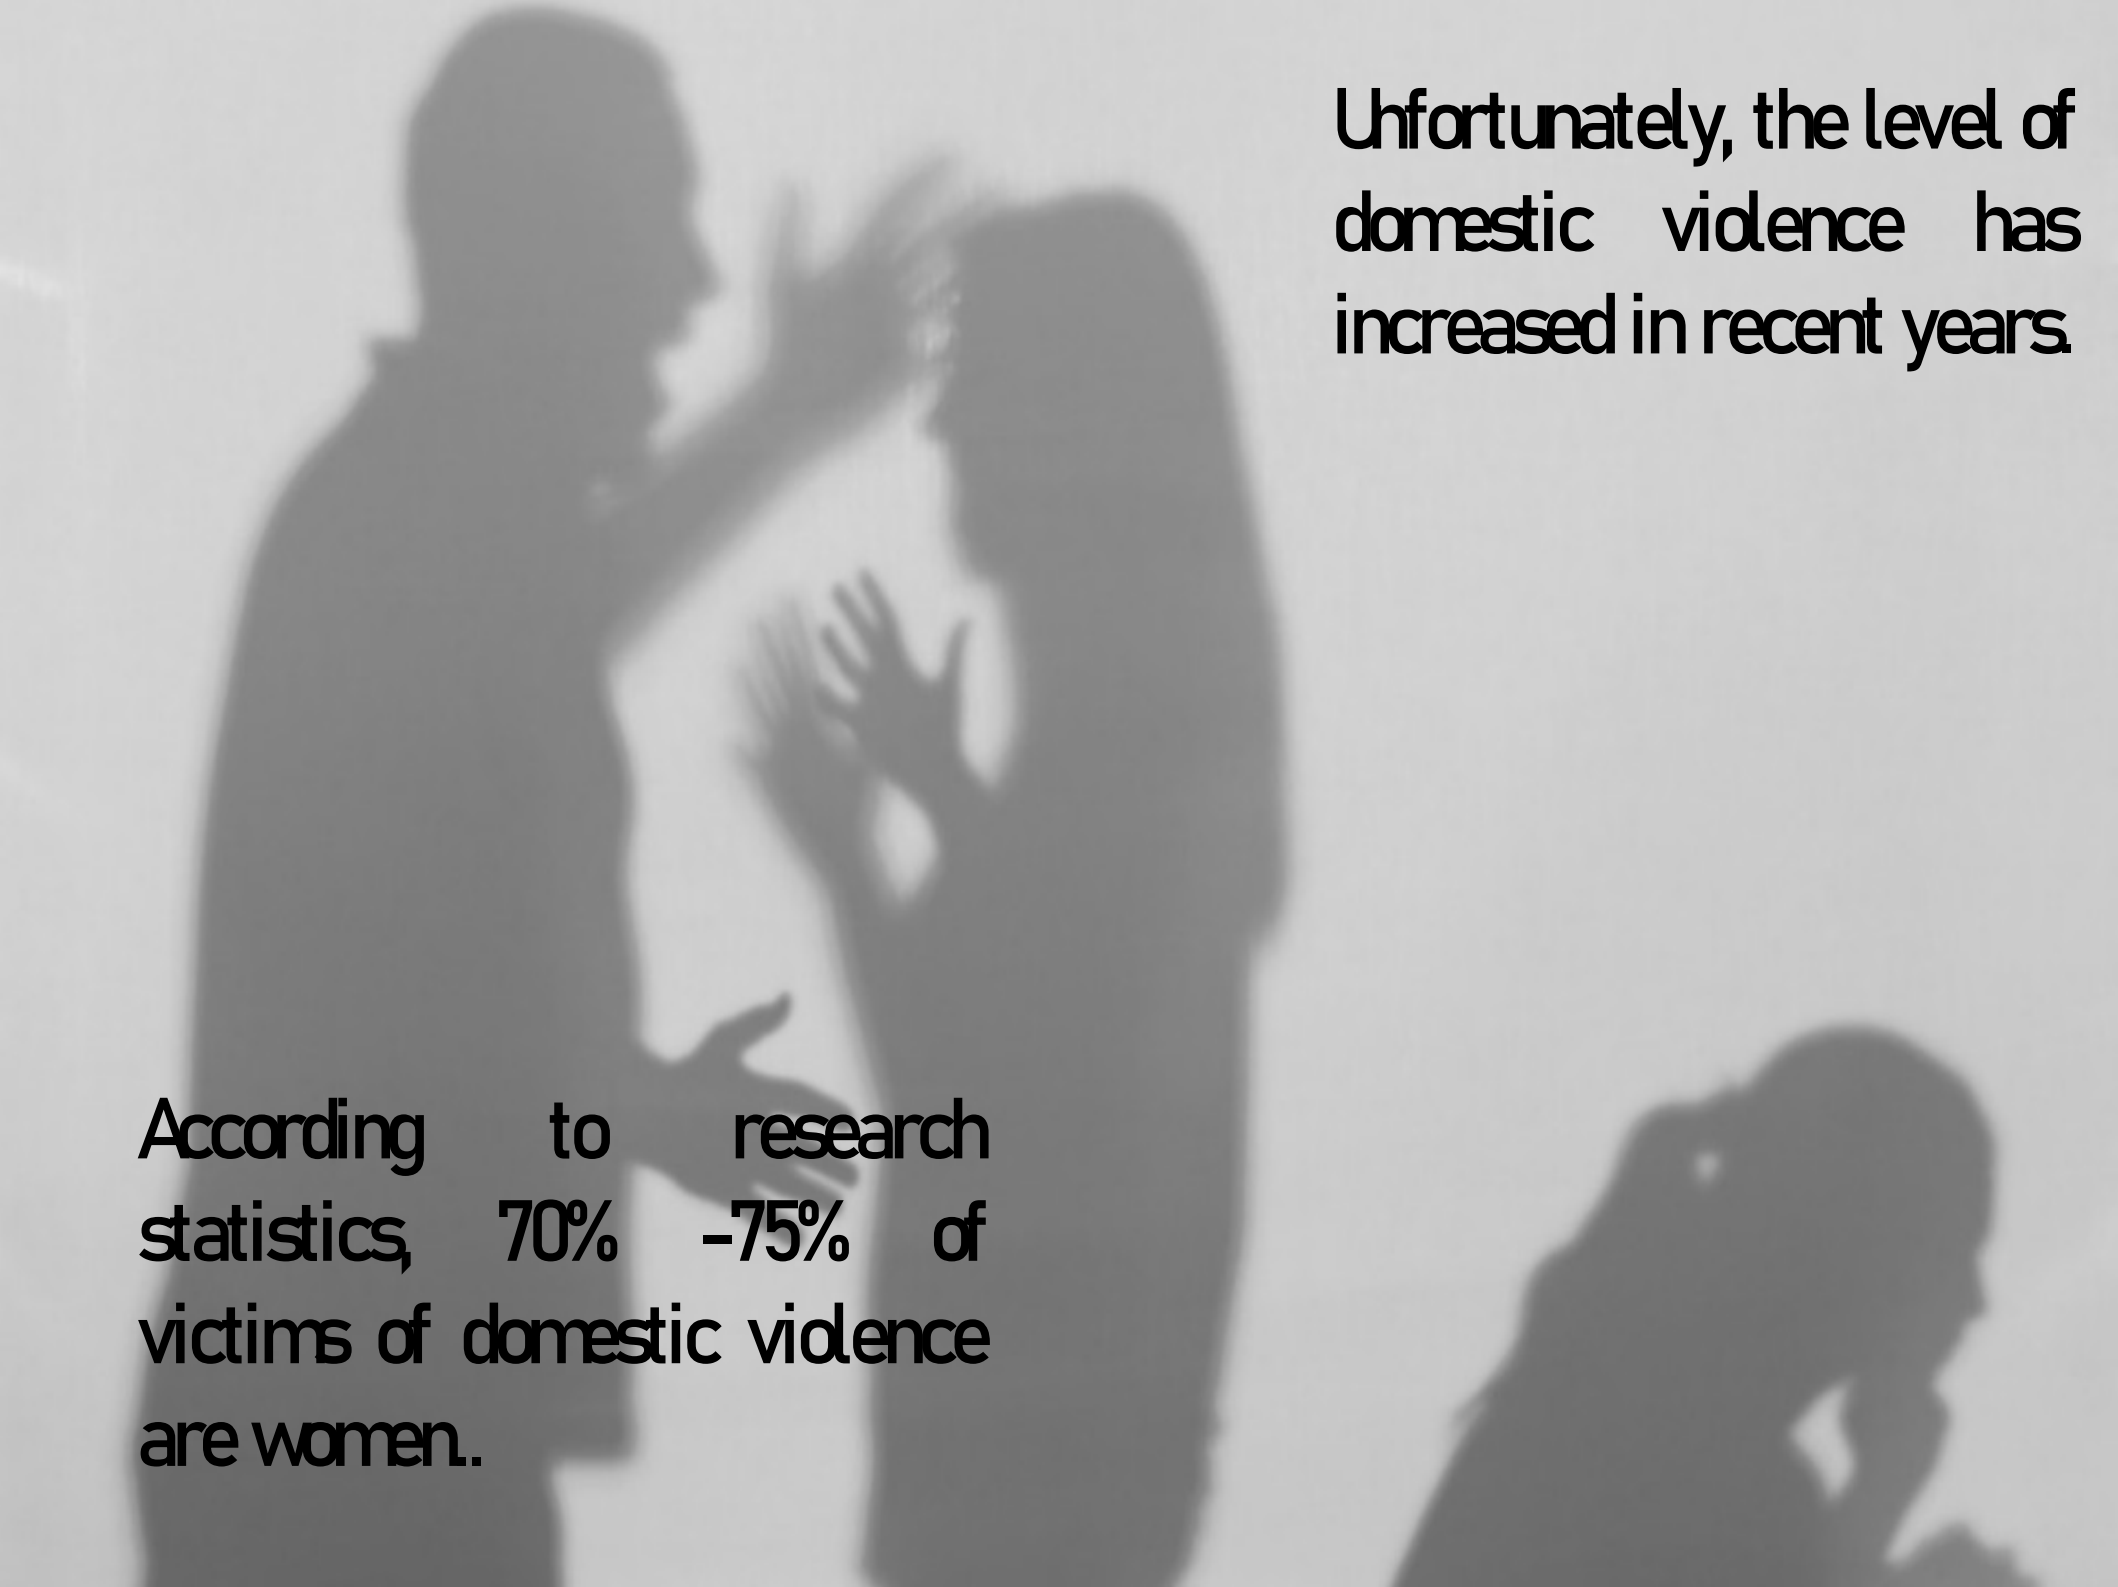

In the Greek family there is a large percentage of equality between the two parents. Problems are solved together and both parents actively participate in the role of guardianship of the children.

the children of the family grow up with the same values and freedoms

However, in some families, boys have more rights and freedoms than girls. something that has been passed down from generation to generation leaving the mark of the old patriarchal family

The image features three dark silhouettes against a light background. On the left, a man's silhouette is shown in profile, reaching out with his right hand towards a woman's face. The woman's silhouette is in the center, with her hands raised to her face in a defensive or distressed posture. In the lower right corner, a third silhouette is visible, appearing to be a person sitting or crouching with their head buried in their hands, suggesting a state of despair or distress.

Unfortunately, the level of domestic violence has increased in recent years.

According to research statistics, 70% -75% of victims of domestic violence are women.

About four out of ten (4/10) women are victims of domestic violence.

Greece has various laws on the issue of domestic violence against women

Many Greek women, famous and not, have been victims of domestic violence. A martyrdom is hers Despina Moiraraki

-Businesswoman Despina Moiraraki spoke about the difficult moments she went through in her first marriage in an interview on magazine. "I experienced violence, competition and humiliation in a relationship with my first husband.

The media are very active and inform the Greek society about incidents of violence

Many actions have been taken and continue to be taken to support abused women in Greece.

marches, sit-ins, newspaper articles even writing books on women's rights.
