

Meeting in Greece

29.04. - 05.05.2018

Sunday, 29th April

We set off on a journey on Sunday at about 1 p.m. We went in the direction of Pyrzowice Airport near to Katowice. Check-in was fast and we were on deck at 6 p.m. The plane took off at 6:30 p.m. The flight lasted two and a half hours. We were in Athens at about 9 p.m. We went to a coach with French and Italian groups. We went close to school where our hosts were waiting for us.

Monday, 30th April

On Monday all of us went to Athens to Panathenaic Stadium. In museum we took part in integrative plays to get a good feel for each other. The first of them was to seek out a person whose badge we drew by lot and talk to him or her. The next play was races. We were separated into groups and everyone had to cover a distance of 60 meters. A winner from each group got a medal. One of the winners was our friend – Piotr Pawlik. Then we went to the Acropol Museum where we were separated into groups again. Each national group was given a group of Greek students who were our guides. During sightseeing we were getting over some exercises which we go before we entered the museum. After leaving the museum we had a free time and the we went to the Acropol. During climbing and sitting at the top of the mountain we could admire the beautiful view of the city and area. We took a picture and all of us had a free time.

Tuesday, 1st May

On Tuesday, we all met at 11:00 at school, where students and the director welcomed us. Later, we all went to the pitch in front of the school to take part in the second part of integration games. Each group had several tasks to do. At the same time, teachers together wreath the wreath. This is the Greek tradition of May Day. Then we went for a dinner. Greek dishes that we had the chance to try were prepared by the parents of the students. The dishes were delicious, and after eating it all people went to the next part of the program, which were presentations of students about the myth or legend related to migration. We, as a group from Poland, presented a myth in the form of a sketch - "Lech, Czech and Rus." This is how the second day of our stay in Greece ended.

Wednesday, 2nd May

On Wednesday at 7:30 we set off to the Greek island of Syros. The trip was lasting about four hours. After leaving the ship, we went to the hotel, where we left our luggage, and then went out to explore the city. The first place we visited was the Appolo Theater. The next point of our trip was the orthodox Church, where its history was approximated. The next part of the trip was a walk through the picturesque streets of the seaside city. After returning to the hotel, we had some time to prepare for the next attraction, which was a trip to the beaches. We spent about 2 hours there. We were bathing in the sea, sunbatheing and trying Greek dishes. After returning to the hotel, we went for a walk in the harbor. At the end of the day, we went to a nearby club to have fun.

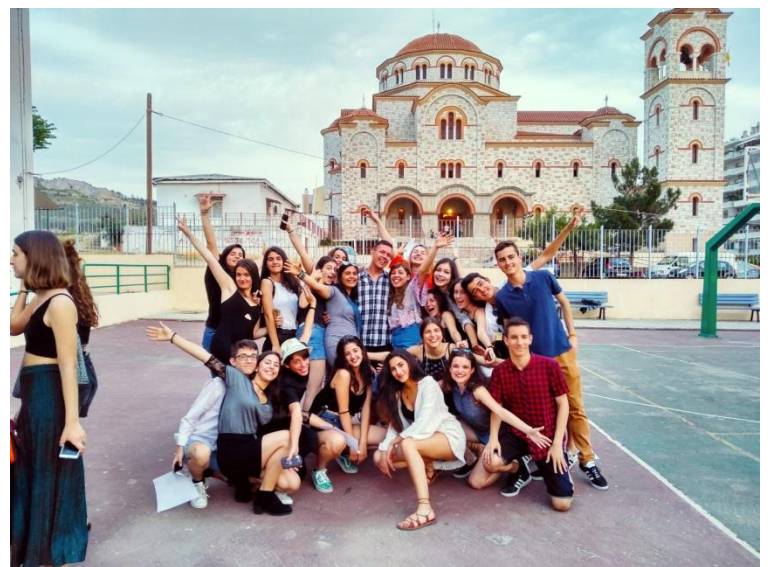

Thursday, 3rd May

On Thursday morning we left the hotel and went to explore the other part of the island. We visited, a Catholic church and the home of one of the most famous Greek musicians - Markos Vamvakaris. After the end of the sightseeing, we went for a dinner and then went back home with the ship.

Friday, 4th May

On the Friday morning we went to "The Ark of the World" fundation, which helps the children, whose parents cannot afford to give them good living conditions and education. This charity helps also a lonely mothers. The next step was a free time. We met in school about 5 p.m. We were making a website, and we were presenting a debate about one of the Greek myths prepared by us and song about migration. Further, there was an official end, after that we have eaten a supper prepared by parents of students. After supper we have been dancing and talking with our beloved friends, we have opportunity to know thanks to that beautiful journey. After the party came time to say goodbye and go home.

Saturday, 5th May

On the morning, just about 5:00 , we departed to the airport, from which we set off about 8:40 and came back to Poland.

It was an amazing time and we will not forget about it!
