How are you?

I'm fine and I'm really happy, because Christmas is approaching

This year. I spend Christmas at my paternal grandmother's house. On the night of the 24th one of us disguises himself as Santa Claus and brings presents to the children.

On the 25th we will have a Christmas lunch and then we will play cards all day.

In Seely there is the tradition of decorating the streets and shops with Christmas trees, colored lights and garlands.

We exchange presents, Christmas presents and we play bingo.

And what do you do for Christmas?
