Our planet is dying. How can't I be frightened? Hurricanes, tornadoes, sea level rising,... are extremely terrifying!

Because it's sad to see our world, in this condition.

Because we need the nature to live

Because we are not sheltered from a natural disaster in Reunion island that could have dramatic consequences in term of damages.

I'm frightened of natural disaster because it can be unpredictable, it can affect everyone at any time everywhere. And with climate change, these natural disasters get stronger and stronger so more and more dangerous. It destroyed our planet, the ecosystem and our present civilization.

Cause our earth is very important and without her we can't live so we have to protect her

Because earth is going to die and us to

Well, I'm frightened because people don't care about climate. They don't change our habit and I think that apocalypse is inevitable. We have to change and do something.

Because I think is not normal that the global warming is too fast because it mean's that our climate change dramatically and if I'm not afraid for me i will be afraid for disabled people or poor people like homeless ect...

Because th world is in danger

I'm afraid because the natural disasters will be more strong and we will can't protect us.

because it can have awful consequences on human's life

Because of the global warming
