

HUNGARIAN TALE

FRIENDSHIP

Once upon a time, there was a round forest in Europe.
There lived Golden Girl, Little Goat, Donkey, Wolf and Little Pig.

One day, the Golden Girl who lived in Bulgaria, set off for a walk. As she was walking, she found a good warm glove.

She thought somebody must be missing the glove, so she asked little Goat who lived next door in Romania, if he had lost it.

She went to him, and asked:

- Have you lost this glove?
- I haven't but let's ask Little Pig who lives in next door in Hungary.

The Little Goat quickly got dressed and they went to the Piggy's house together.

A child's drawing on a light blue background. At the top, there are three blue scribbles representing clouds. A simple brown outline of a house with a triangular roof is drawn across the upper half. On the left, a yellow woman with a pink hat and a purple heart-shaped glove is shown. In the center, a pink pig with large ears and a green collar is depicted. To the right of the pig, a small rabbit wearing a red vest and a white skirt holds a small flag with horizontal stripes of blue, yellow, and red. On the far right, a tall brown tree with a green, rounded top is drawn. The ground is indicated by light green and blue scribbles.

- Have you lost this glove?

- I haven't but I know the Wolf, who lives in France, let's take it to him!

The Little Pig knocked bravely on the Wolf's door and asked:

- Have you lost this glove?
- No I haven't but Donkey lives in Turkey, why don't we asked him?

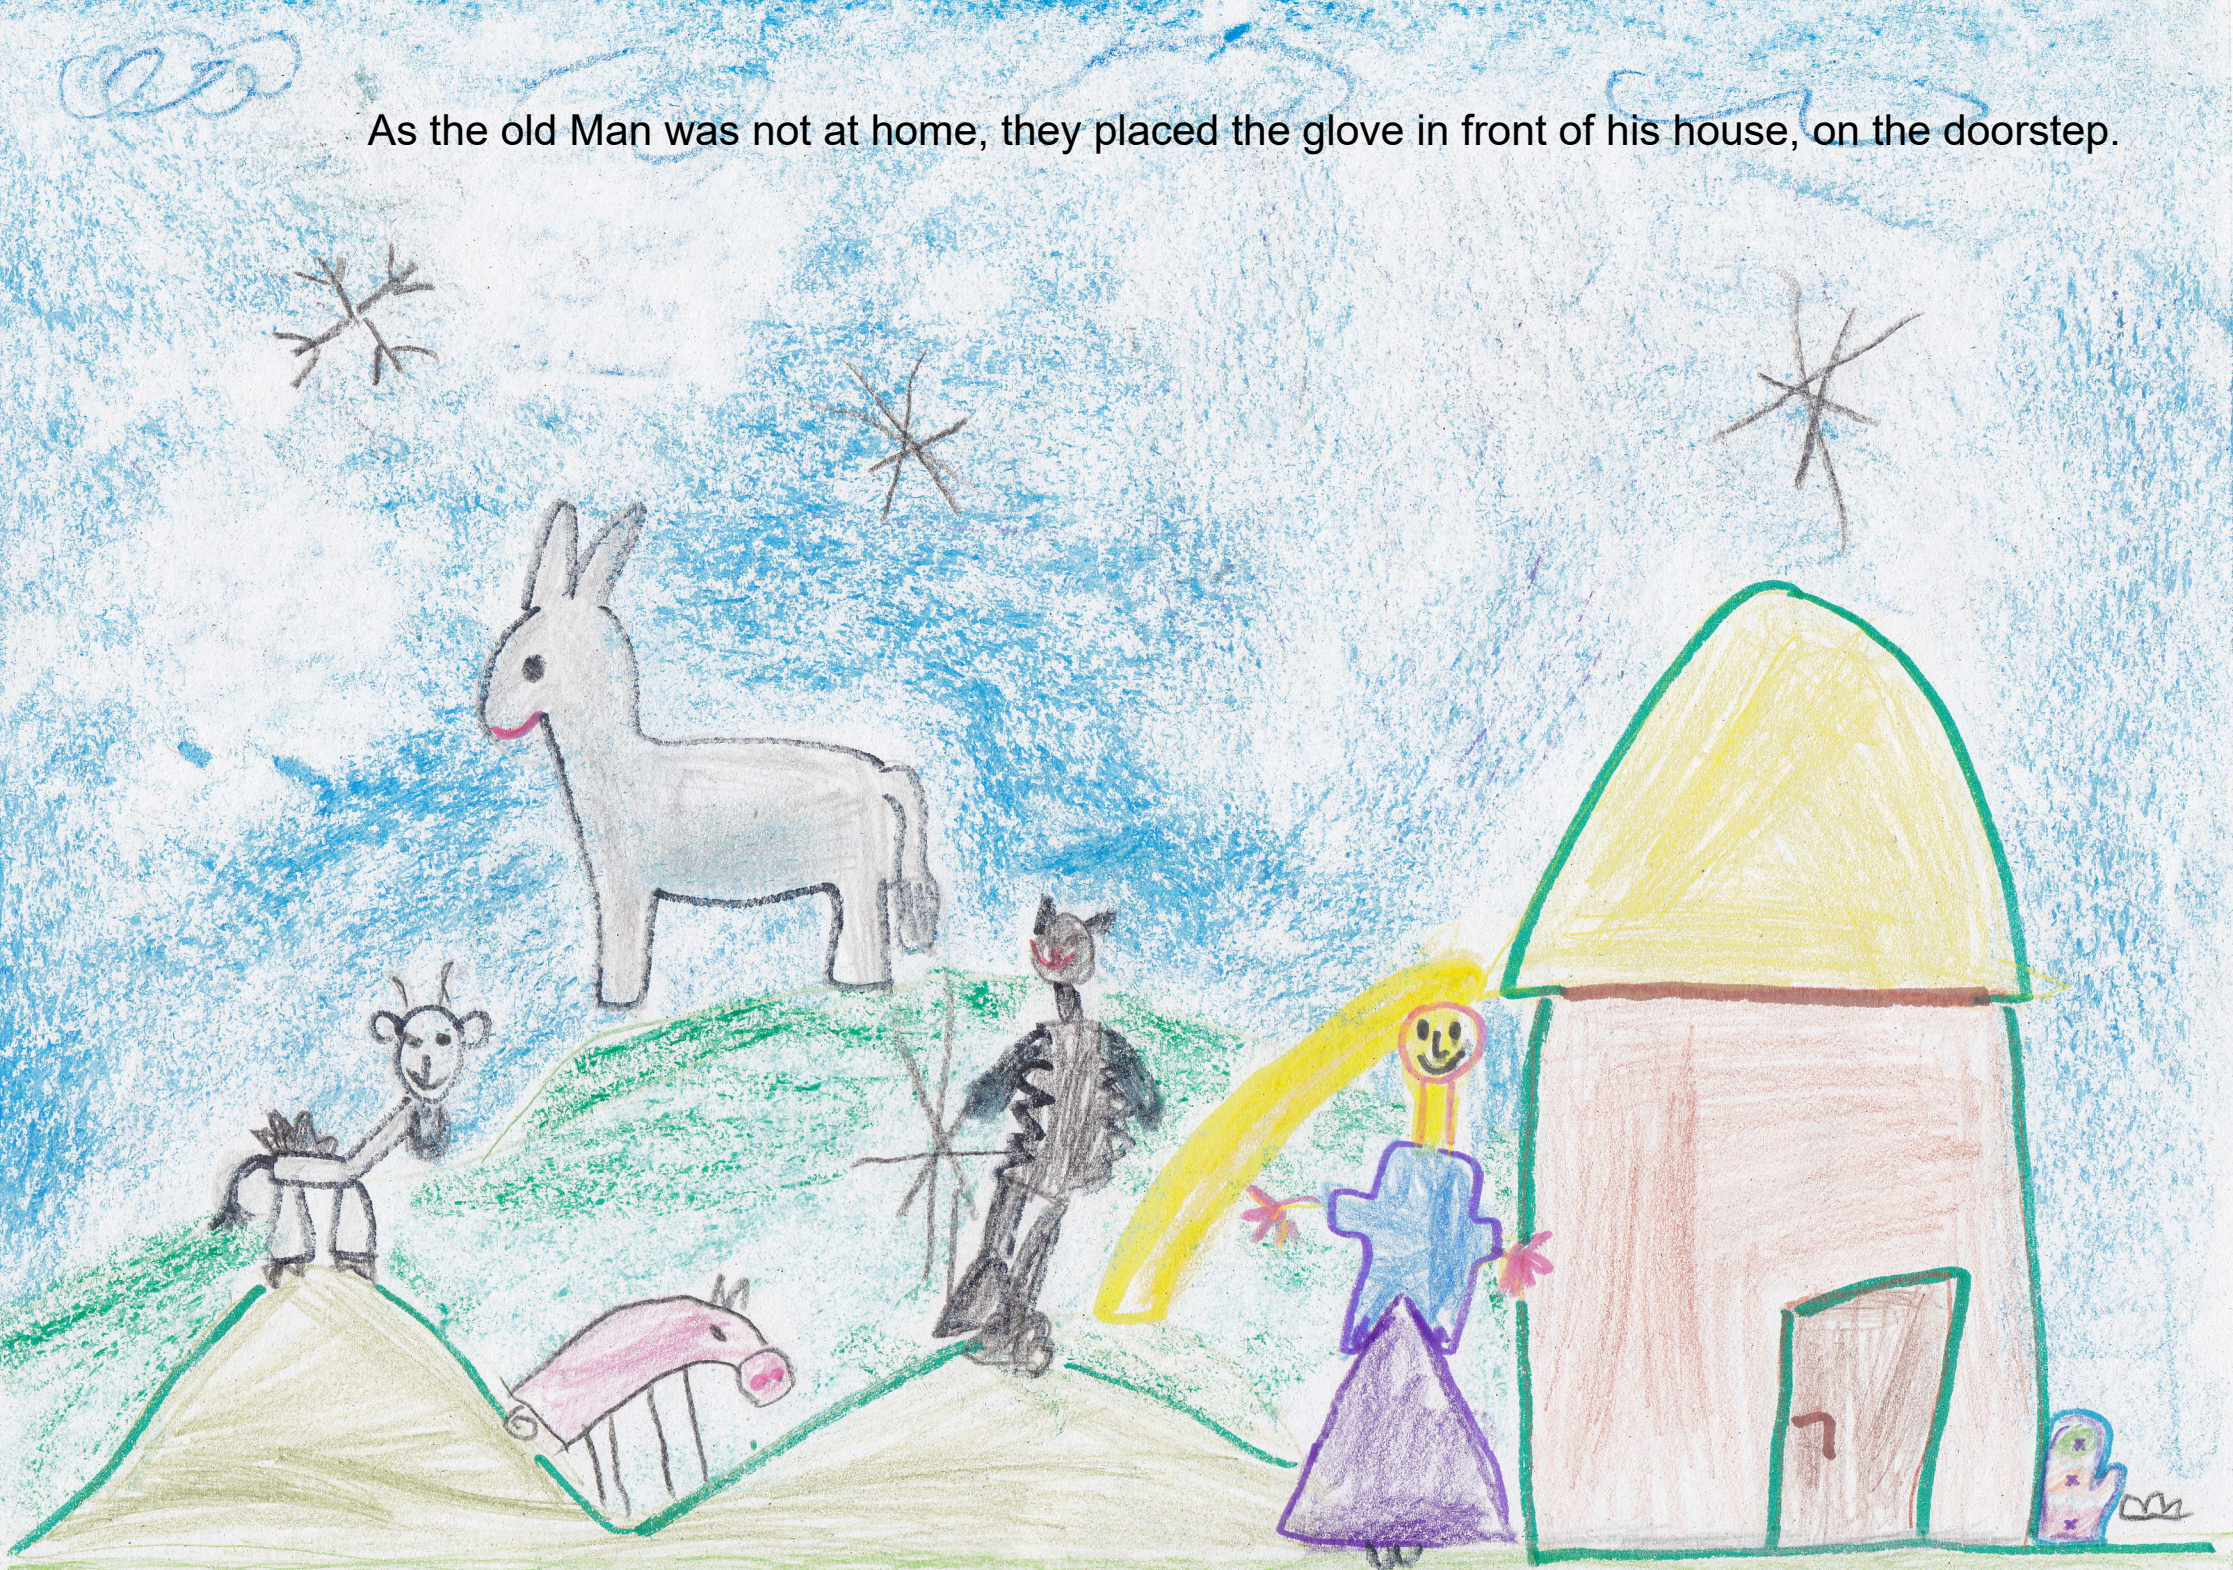

They arrived at the Donkey's house and asked?

- Have you lost this glove?
- No I haven't but there is an old man in the far north of Latvia, let's take it to him!

Before they set off the Donkey offered them pickles, which even the Wolf tasted too!

As the old Man was not at home, they placed the glove in front of his house, on the doorstep.

When the old Man got home, he was very happy to see his glove, because he had only one glove for a long time when he went for a walk.

He wondered, how nice the inhabitant of the Forest because somebody brought back his lost glove.

