

Autumn poems by the Greek team (C2a ICT class)

01 October 2018

All photos are from Greece in Autumn

In Autumn I feel moody
In Autumn I see orange and yellow leaves
In Autumn I smell the rain
In Autumn I hear the wind
In Autumn I taste spicy tea

Elli

In Autumn I feel moody
In Autumn I see umbrellas
In Autumn I smell crispy air
In Autumn I hear raindrops
In Autumn I taste spicy tea

Kostas

In Autumn I feel happy
In Autumn I see the shaking twig
In Autumn I smell crispy air
In Autumn I hear gently blow
In Autumn I taste hot chocolate

Dimitris

In Autumn I feel happy
In Autumn I see leaves
In Autumn I smell the rain
In Autumn I hear the wind
In Autumn I taste pumpkin pie

Armando

In Autumn I feel curious

In Autumn I see yellow leaves

In Autumn I smell freshness

In Autumn I hear the rain

In Autumn I taste the Autumn fruits

Ioanna

In Autumn I feel happy
In Autumn I see colorful umbrellas
In Autumn I smell rainy ground
In Autumn I hear the raindrops
In Autumn I taste apple cakes

Valia

In Autumn I feel happy
In Autumn I see cloudy sky
In Autumn I smell cinnamon rolls
In Autumn i hear school's bell
In Autumn i taste juicy tangerines

Savina

In Autumn I feel happy
In Autumn I see nature in orange
In Autumn I smell pumking cakes
In Autumn I hear wind blowing
In Autumn I taste fresh apples

Christodoulos Sarrigeorgiou

In Autumn I feel happy
In Autumn I see yellow leaves
In Autumn I smell the rain
In Autumn I hear the wind
In Autumn I taste hot chocolate

Katerina