

Biography written by Patricia Molero and Adrián Alanís

Sources :

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Karin_Boye#/media/File:Karin_Boye,_1940s.gif

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Karin_Boye

<http://www.karinboye.se/verk/dikter/index-en.shtml>

KARIN BOYE

Boye was born in Gothenburg (Göteborg), Sweden and moved with her family to Stockholm in 1909.

She studied at Uppsala University from 1921 to 1926 and debuted in 1922 with a collection of poems.

During her time in Uppsala and until 1930, Boye was a member of the Swedish Clarté League, a socialist group which was at the time strongly anti-Fascist.

First she was married to Leif Björck and later she had a lesbian relationship with Gunnel Bergström.

-The best-known is the poem "Dead Amazon"

-A literary association dedicated to her work was created in 1983, keeping her work alive by spreading it among new readers

-She had a lesbian relationship

Clouds	A Buddhist Fantasy
The Nightjar	To a Sphinx
Idea	Evening Prayer
Crossroads	The Best
Morning Song	Early Spring
A Painter's Wish	To an Unknown
Descendant	Dedication
Distrust	In the Dark
Compelled
To the Shadow of a Reality
The two Lineages

Boye committed suicide on 23 April 1941.