

FACT FILE

Festivity ? Aid-Al Adha.

When ? Celebrates on the end of Hajj(the pilgrimage to Mecca). It varies, this year was on the 22th of August.

Where ? In the whole country (Islamic world).

Why ? to commemorate the day that Allah order Ibrahim to slaughter his son , but when he was applying the order, the God replaced his son with a sheep.

We commemorate "Aid Al Adha" by slaughting a sheep , after praying "Aid's pray".

People celebrate that day with their families, and they have a good and enjoyable time.

We eat traditional dishes made of sheep's meat like:"Takliya" or stomach specialites,"kebabs" and we have a lot of sweets.

In the afternoon, some people visit their members of their bigs families and their neighbors.

And also we have "boujaloud's festival" that starts the afternoon and lasts for 3days.

That day is one of our religious celebrations that has a big value in our Islamic religion.

Yamna Sersify & Amine Ennasiry

*Do you have special religious celebration?
How do you call them?*

Some vocabulary in Images

Takliya

Kebabs

sheep

boujaloud

Aid's pray

