

Jack lanterns sitting on the stoop Skeletons and ghosts hanging on the parch
Kids in costumes coming in the street
Saying trick or treat smell my feet
Or give me something to eat
Bags full of candy
Watching scary movies on the couch
But careful if you see a black cat

One teaspoon of monkey's blood
Two dozens of crocodile eggs
Three pints of venom
Four glasses of swamp water
Five pinches of salt
Six gallons of oil
Seven handfuls of mosquitoes
Eight pieces of rat legs
Nine cups of spiders
Ten grams of frog skin

It was a terrifying evening when I came from my high school

I passed the cemetery on my way

I didn't stop to wish the dead mercy

I continued my path suddenly

Children came and hit me with eggs and beat me with tomatoes

I felt very scared and very disturbed

A few moments later,

I discovered that this day is Achoura

So I fled laughing

I thought the dead are angry

And they are as children want to take revenge

It is Halloween: It's Halloween

We make our faces

And wear odd hats

We cry like witches

And scratch like cats

And thump like elves

And jump like golbins

And almost manage

To scare ourselves

We are having a Halloween party at school

I'm dressed up like Dracula

I look cool

I dyed my hair black

And I cut off my bangs

I am wearing a cape

I put some make up to have my face white

Like creatures that only come out in the night

My fingernails too are all red

I look like I am recently back from death

It's Halloween and I love that day so much

It's Halloween, it's the day of joy

The scary pumpkin in the street

Kids go everywhere on their feet

It's Halloween, it's the day of joy

They laugh, they sing

They run and they play

It's Halloween

There are strange costumes

Scary make up

Skin of snake

Bags of candy

It's Halloween, it's Halloween

The day of Joy

Treat or trick

From house to another

In the night in the dark

Candles glow over the gloves

Like shining stars

Pumpkin spread everywhere

Make you live in another world

Trick or treat

Give me chocolate or face the ghost
