

The Well Being Leaders are proud to announce the success of Shoscombe Fairtrade Christmas Tuck Shop

The profits from the sale of the biscuits enabled us to buy a beautiful African mask for our school, made by the contemporary artist Rita Addo Zakour, who we learnt about in Art as part of our KS2 Black History topic. She sells her work through UNICEF market, another Fairtrade organisation. They make sure she gets paid a fair wage for her artwork. A share of the sale of each piece of artwork also goes to help vital causes such as providing clean drinking water for all.

The mask which the artist has entitled 'Peace Be Unto You' arrived from Ghana today, with a note thanking Shoscombe for supporting UNICEF and Fair Trade.
