

PANIC AT BARCELONA

During the Erasmus week at the trip at Barcelona they lost a Slovenian girl

They took a bus, and they went straight ahead to the downtown of Barcelona city they started a guided visit. They visited las Ramblas, la Sagrada Familia, Cristobal Colon Statue and different places of Barcelona downtown. Everyone loved the visit and were very interested. When they finished, they had 30 minutes of free time. Most of the people went shopping or buying some food or drinks. Everyone was enjoying. When the time finished and they had to go home. They count all the students and then they realized that one was missing. It was a Slovenian girl! Everyone was so worried they started going to all the places they've been but they couldn't find her anywhere. Then someone called her but that day she left her phone at home. Then a boy remembered that she saw her at the free time at Mcdonald. So they run to the McDonalds thank god she was there. She was crying and she was so scared. At the end they returned to Olot and everyone as very tired. La Sagrada Familia is a spectacular monument.

Queralt Coves
Marta Prada
Olot