Celebrity couple Connie Ferguson and Shona Ferguson, have drowned in Canada in what police are calling a “case of misadventure”.

The accident took place at Lake Ontario, Canadian province of Ontario, according to Police statement.

The Consulate of Botswana representative confirmed the report to the media that Connie and her husband, Shona, were fishing on May 16, when Connie fell into the water. She was in distress and Shona jumped into the water to assist her. According to the Consulate, both were pulled from the water but could not be resuscitated.
