SCHOOL BELLS LEFT A BOY DEAF AFTER BEING PUNISHED BY HIS TEACHER.

THE BELLS THAT TURNED NICO M. DEAF

It was about last night when Nico M. was locked in the school bell tower by Ashley R., the Maths teacher.

Last morning the concierge found him when he was going to clean the floor of the bell tower for an inspection. Suddenly he found the boy on the floor. He had been shouting all night so he hadn't slept, the concierge tried to talk to Nico but he couldn't answer any of his questions, because he wasn't able to hear anymore. Now he is recovering in hospital.

After talking to Nico, he was able to tell the police that he was locked in the tower all night because he didn't know how to solve a Maths problem.

The police caught Ashley R., the Maths teacher, who doesn't remember anything because she was drunk. She is currently in prison waiting for a sentence.
