I listen to any kind of music and I think that music is as diverse and unique as we are.

Hi there! :) My name is Alexandra.

I am very happy to be part of this project because I am a very sociable person and I love to meet new people. I really enjoy the long walks, with the right people, they are even a remedy for all the problems in this life. I also love the beauty of nature. I have always been fascinated by everything around us, maybe that's why since I was little I loved to travel. Being a curious person, through the trip I always had the chance to discover new locations, new cultures, in short to get out of my comfort zone. One of my biggest weaknesses is coffee. A passion that I have had since I was little is cycling and another one that I discovered 4 years ago is skiing.

*I can't wait to get to know each other as well as possible and enjoy this project together!!!
Hugs!!!*
